At 8 years old my dream is to be either Scotland or Australia's number 1 Goalkeeper.

This year I have been selected to play with the Gold Coast Knights Academy U9 football team.

Last year I won Player of the tournament at the Qld State title Futsal Championship in Brisbane.

With hard work, determination and focus I believe my dream will come true.

Con 6 años me fichó el Atlético de Madrid cuando me enfrenté a ellos en un torneo de fútbol, les marqué muchos goles y decidieron que me uniera a ellos. Este es mi segundo año en la academia del Atlético de Madrid y estoy muy contento he sido nombrado mejor jugador en varios torneos y hemos ganado todos los torneos que hemos jugado. Mi sueño es ir subiendo cada año de categoría hasta llegar al primer equipo y poder debutar en el Wanda Metropolitano. Pero para eso todavía queda mucho y yo de momento quiero pasármelo bien aprendiendo día a día.

I am Fajer Al-Jassem. I live in Germany and play in the state league of Bayern for Victoria Aschaffenburg. I am 9 years old and I train 6 days a week, 3 days at the club, 2 days at the school club, and 1 day at the academy. I always try to get fit and follow all the matches in order to learn tactics on the field and I love training. I have a test date with top-tier clubs in Germany. I hope you will be able to play in the first division and represent my country when I grow up

I play for Torquay United U13's playing a year up. I love being a goalkeeper and aspiring to be the best I can be. My idols are Peter Schmeichel, David Degea and my dad.

I started my football journey at age 3 at my local grassroots club WBB. At age 7 I joined Torquay United U8's and Plymouth Argyle Pre-academy. I then signed for Plymouth Argyle Academy at U9's. I left Argyle half way through my U11 season as I wasn't enjoying my football anymore. My confidence was low and I needed a break. I went back playing with my mates at grassroots to get the enjoyment back again. I'm still with WBB at U12's and loving it.

I got asked to try out for Torquay United U13's playing a year up. I got signed up on my first trial training session.

I'm now loving my football again and am really enjoying playing on full size pitches. Can't wait to see where I'll be in a few years time.

I'd like to thank my glove sponsor Defiance Gloves, for always supporting and encouraging me to be my best. I love wearing these gloves.
