My name is Anthony Hibbert. I am a basketball player and i like to play all out. Beware of me as I can be extremely dangerous on court. Every game is like a deal for me which I want to close like a pro. I won a competition few months back and played it like a pro. Thought, I couldn't win it , I came 3rd.

My goal for this Spring is to help my team Area Stars Zach 10u become the #1 PG ranked team in the nation. We are currently ranked #2 and have a very challenging Spring Schedule ahead of us. My biggest achievement so far has been representing Team Carolina in the PG All State Select National Champions and bringing home the title.

One challenge I have faced was losing my coach and mentor, Dean DiMaria to COVID in 2021. I am still working hard to make him proud and know that he is watching. I wear a sticker on my helmet to honor his memory.

In the future, I would love to go to high school at Pro 5 Baseball Academy, play D1 and go on to the MLB.

My favorite bat has been my Cat 9 alloy and composite. I named the alloy "Squid" and he hits dingers.

So far, I have 15 Homeruns and I've been working hard with my lesson coach, Jason Culler to keep improving.

I'm a left handed pitcher and I'm also learning a lot from Coach Zach Tanner.

It's hard to balance everything, I focus really hard to not waste time at training sessions I must get the most out of the time I have. My Dad is my #1 Ski Coach and has taught me everything I know. My Mom helps me with yoga and makes my lunches and avacado toast in the morning, I Love Her :) My Nana and Papa are always supporting my dreams, I am blessed by God to have them. My Soccer Coach Gio Partida is always pushing my skills to the next level. I have faced all kinds of challenges but some of the biggest are dealing with people who don't understand that I do things different because it works! And it works for me. My Dad always says be open to new information but don't let the limitations of others determine your future. Always think outside the box that others are trapped in.
