Hi, my name is Alia, I have been dancing since the age of 2 and won my first solo dance competition at just 3yrs old.

I live on the Gold Coast and train in NSW at Industry Dance.

I love competing and being on the stage, Dance allows me to be myself, meet new friends, travel and have goals to work for.

My short term goals are very simple. Improve everyday. Be a better version of myself than yesterday and walk away from each performance knowing I gave it everything I have to give!

My long term goal is to turn my love of dance from passion to career and hopefully get the opportunity to mentor the next generation of young inspiring dancers the same way I have admired my role models the last 8 years.

Allyson D
Thompson

Allyson is a dynamic 9 year old dancer from Missouri City, TX. This is currently her third season competing with her local studio dance team. Throughout her years on the team, she has competed in petite pom, petite and petite intermediate jazz, junior hip hop, petite intermediate contemporary, and a hip-hop solo. She also takes ballet, private dance technique and choreography lessons, and weekly Acro 1 classes from her favorite gymnastics and tumbling gym.

She is passionate about dance and wants to learn more genres and styles. She would like to learn tap and how to do the calypso and firebird within the next year. One of her immediate goals is to master Acro skills such as the aerial, back tuck, and back handspring.

Allyson dreams of one day becoming member of an HBCU (Historically Black Colleges and Universities) dance team. She loves watching her favorite teams on YouTube and can't wait to attend their summer camps when she gets to high school. After college she has plans to open her own dance studio and share the love of dance with young kids.

She has accomplished a lot since becoming a dancer and joining a competitive team. She has learned that her natural ability to pick up on choreography, positive attitude, and great memorization skills have allowed her to improve on her technique and become a great asset to her team. Of course, she still has a lot to learn and is excited about that! She believes the sky is the limit and she can master it all if she is in a healthy and encouraging environment. Most importantly, she believes that it is important to dance where you are seen, heard, not overlooked, or put into a box.

Allyson plans to continue her dancing adventure while also taking advantage of new opportunities. The best is yet to come so "STAY TUNED!"

I'm a law student with a Master's degree in nonprofit management and social work as well as being a model. I went into modeling in large part to help promote my public service work which is my biggest passion. I am in the process of starting up my own nonprofit in Philadelphia where I live. It's called A Friend in Need Philadelphia and helps connect unhomed individuals to resources set up around the city.

I've enjoyed my work modeling and have met some truly wonderful people who are also passionate about using their platforms and brands for great cause. I hope to be part of making this industry a safer and more ethical and inclusive world!
