Sheridan's Photography

My Name is Stephen Sheridan and I produce conceptual fashion and portrait shoots across the UK and occasionally in Europe. One such shoot is based around the concept of Christmas, both as a fashion shoot for the modern day and as a retrospective look at how a Christmas glamour shoot was approached in past decades. The retrospective Glamour shoot was solely a studio-based production bringing together traditional lighting and a little fairy light accent from a battery powered tree ornament set. We wished to soften the feel of the shoot, so brought in some softer satin material to act as an accent style to the sets. Our modern take on the Christmas fashion shoot was different we shot very early in the morning just before sunrise a week before Christmas and used no lighting, just ambient light and what light was available to us via shop windows and street decorations. In this way we sought to bring in the glamour and fashion world together at the best seasonal time of year. My thanks to Clara Taylor who styled the sets herself and was such a talent on set and on location.

My name is Diana Osaulenko, I'm 27 y.o, I was born and raised in Kyiv, Ukraine. I'm a model, a student, Vice Miss Ukraine California.

I've always had a great passion for TV industry dreaming one day to see myself on television. I graduated from the University of Culture and Arts, majoring international tourism and hospitality business back in Ukraine. In 2017 I have moved to United States alone to find more opportunities to chase my Dream and become a model and TV presenter.

Modeling, photoshoot and dancing have always been my favorite hobbies. The last time I was a model for Inna Elsie's white party wearing incredibly beautiful and luxury robes.

Currently I am a student of Chabot College, Mass Communication/Radio and TV host.

Since the war started in Ukraine on February 24th, 2022, I could not stop finding ways how I and American society can help Ukraine. I strongly believe that hosting TV and radio shows I would help to bring more awareness to American people of how tragic this war for us, Ukrainians.

I start fundraising, organize protests and other events that highly support Ukraine and help the people.

On November 4th I was blessed to represent my culture and Ukrainian heritage at the beauty pageant Miss Ukraine California 2023. For me this show was not just about my Dream or the beauty and the crown. First and foremost it's my chance to show inner beauty – the weapon that can fight for freedom, peace and harmony.

That day judges believed in me and I became a title holder of Vice Miss Ukraine California 2023.

I am proud to be Ukrainian, and as an emigrant living in America, I am obliged to help my people.

Projects, interviews, charity events, assistance to the needy and even more. As a journalist and TV host I will provide the necessary attention to the public by interviewing governors, American volunteers, and Ukrainian refugees to build the bridge between two countries and save lives of innocent civilians.

Being Ukrainian woman - brave, creative, beautiful, caring - I am ready to help my country. I will carry the title with dignity. I'm grateful to everyone who helps Ukraine to win this unfair war!

We all see a huge World's support to Ukrainian army. However, my goal right now is to help Ukrainian kids both here in the US and there in Ukraine! I'm working with kids and I know how hard it is for them to face these challenges, especially now, during the awfully freezing winter. I help a Ukrainian nonprofit charity organization "Open.hearts.ua".

Together we help orphans, and children with disabilities. Joining us you can also save someone's lives! Our main goal now is to collect more than $10,000 for heaters and generators. In the nearest future my dream is to create a nonprofit supportive county center in California where families with kids can be saved from being departed to Russia, from being killed or being crippled. It will be the center with teachers, therapists and volunteers who support each family from A to Z providing all the necessities. Glory to Ukraine ua

Emilia Cabassa

My Name is Emilia Cabassa, from a young age I've always seen myself wanted to be a professional model falling in the path of Kendall Jenner and many others, but at the time it wasn't easy. I've struggled with being overweight and until recently I lost over 150 pounds and become my dream body image. I have many goals in life and one is to eventually be a name people will know, whether it be through modeling or another career meant for me but I'd love to reach the achievement of being a name people will remember. I'm 18 years old, I work full time in an industry I don't enjoy and I'd love to do a mother way to financially sustain myself doing something I love, I'm also a student full time study in biology with the aspirations of possibly becoming a doctor one day. I'm still young and figuring out what I would like to do is still in progress but I know today is that I want to build a name and image for myself, I want to be remembered for good and determination in my career.

Vanah Cordeiro

Vanah

When I grow up I want to be the best at what I passionate about. For my being happy is doing what I love to do. My short term goal is to get my black belt in Taekwondo.

My long term goal is to always be the best version of myself. Being kind and giving and helping other people. Everyone needs a Vanah cuddle.

My greatest achievement is earning my green belt in Taekwondo. My biggest challenges are that I few fear of sparring in Taekwondo and also that I worry about everyone else when I should try to focus on myself first.
