My name is Kennedy but everyone at gym calls me KB. I am a level 6 gymnast at Metroplex Gymnastics in Allen Texas. Though this hasn't always been my gym home and that has been one of my greatest challenges in gymnastics this year. I have had to grow and adapt with a new gym home and new coaches learning that all environments are not toxic. Mental health is a real thing and as a gymnast we want to please and be perfect but we have to be healthy humans when we leave this sport.

As I have been re learning skills and ways to do things in the sport that I so dearly love my goals are staying at the front of my brain. They are even written on a board in my room so that I see them everyday. My very short term goal is level 7 this year. After that I am shooting for a regional spot in a very tough state but what are goals if you don't reach a little for them. In the end I want to go to college and do gymnastics. If I had my pick I would head to Oklahoma University for college but I am 9 and who knows where I will want to go when it is time.

As a gymnast achievements come as medals but also as life lessons. I have achieved medals, state medals and even region 3 qualifications with my favorite coach Bryce Kirkley. Though I think the achievement of being able to persevere through adversity in the gym and being able to do it even though it's hard is a greater achievement.

The biggest thing I can do is say thank you to mom for being the driver, grandpa for helping me do this dream, coach Bryce for believing in me and telling me it's ok to move on and Dakota for being there when others were not.

Believe in your dreams and go after them. Success is not owned it is rented and the rent is do daily.

My name is Kylie Gorman and I am 10 years old. I attend five star sports Academy in East Rockaway NY on Bronze A.

Some challenges I have faced are breaking my right and left ankle as well as my left wrist. I was out over eight weeks for each injury. I had to miss state competition while injured and the following year although I qualified again the competition was canceled because of Covid.

After getting cleared to return to practice and competing in my first state competition I placed third all around!

My dream is to make the high school and college gymnastics team and maybe even be in the Olympics!

I love gymnastics and I am happiest when I am training and competing!!! Gymnastics is my favorite sport!

Lucia is a 11 years old competitive gymnast from Italy. She has been practicing gymnastics for more than three years, and she pursues its objectives with stubbornness! She dreams of becoming a successful gymnast and she is dedicated every day to training.

Last year she had a problem with her back but she didn't give up, she stopped the time needed and recently began to train again.

She's a hardheaded, energetic, solar girl with so much sense of humor.

She loves her dog called Bolt and she likes animals in general.

She is honoured to be part of this magazine and she wants to thank you for this amazing opportunity.

Maddison lindsell

My dream is to have a happy life full of dance acro good friends and family .

My goal is to better myself everyday and to win a national title .

My challenges are not enough hrs in the day to do everything I love to do lol!

And I have an extra bone in my foot that sometimes causes swelling so I have to rest when this happens which I dislike because it means no dance 😞.

My achievements are place in top 5 of of many regional and national dance competitions and achieving a distinction in my RAD ballet exams
