Abbi Raye Staples

Hello, my name is Abbi Raye. Being a thirteen year old female in the MMA world is challenging, especially in Texas where there aren't many opportunities to put your skills together and fight an actual MMA fight. But, I train as hard as possible to be ready for every opportunity that comes available and I never turn down a fight.

My dream is to be a professional MMA fighter and to use my platform to bring awareness to Alveolar Soft Part Sarcoma research. ASPS took my mom from me in 2016. I currently have a website with information about this rare cancer and where donations to research can be made. You can find this information at www.abbiraye.com

Since I began my training in martial arts, I have had the opportunity to train with many UFC fighters, past and present. I have been blessed to gain insight from them. I have trained Jiu jitsu, Muay Thai, Dutch Kickboxing, Sambo, Boxing and Wrestling. I have earned gold in NAGA, JJWL, Tap Cancer Out, American Grappling Federation, Grappling Industries tournaments. I have also participated in the Fight2Win grappling promotion and won Silver at the 2021 Sambo Nationals.

I won my first sanctioned kickboxing match in January 2022, and I am excited to have my second fight in June 2022 in Oklahoma.

I know my mom is with me every step of the way as she watches over me. She is my "why" and my guardian angel.

You can follow my journey on social media. I promise you won't be disappointed! Every MMA artist has a story....! FIGHT FOR HER!

I have been practicing Brazilian Jiu Jitsu since four and a half years old, competing since five and a half. I have won many matches and tournaments, and I have also lost my share. I am currently and yellow/black belt level. My hopes are to continue training my whole life, one day getting my black belt under my professor Bruno Mendes. I love my Soul Fighters Texas team! I am thankful that this sport allows me to learn a skill that I can use for the rest of my life, and I hope that I can continue to set a good example for others through the sport and through my actions.

Je m'appelle Owen Haddad et je pratique le taekwondo depuis mes 3 ans, je suis ceinture rouge. Je rêve de devenir champion olympique et de décrocher tout les titres possibles.

Je suis vice champion de France et 38^{ème} mondial. Je m'entraîne 3 fois par semaine au taekwondo et je pratique la course à pied en complément. Je suis un combattant international. Je m'entraîne dur afin de réussir.

Patri Stachowiak

I'm the Viking! I've been training taekwondo for 12 years, and every day I get better. Every day I am more motivated to keep fighting, and it is thanks above all to my coach. Without him it would be nothing. He is the one who motivates me, who encourages me and who makes me shine! I hope one day to achieve my dream of reaching the taekwondo Olympics, it is my greatest wish since I was a child!
