Ann Myrna is an actor, director, producer and voice over artist who also dabbles in theatre. As Vice President of Acrostar Productions, she enjoys bringing cast and crew together to create indie films in the horror and supernatural/paranormal genres. Her favorite Acrostar films are Night of the Dead Sorority Babes, Attack of the Corn Zombies and It Came from Somewhere.

Ann looks forward to producing and acting in The Legend of Tinker Hell, the newest fantasy horror feature film coming in 2026 from Acrostar Productions. The Legend of Tinker Hell introduces a new face of horror. Ellie isn't your typical killer since you won't see her chasing you in the woods or down a hallway or stalking you from just outside the closet door. When you think you're safe from her witty and murderous ways, she magically appears from nowhere leaving you with a catchy jingle and no escape from her mischief, before brutally killing you in the most unusual ways.

Ann plays Fae, the head fairy, who ultimately decides whether Ellie belongs in the fantasy world or the earthly world. With a stacked cast of seasoned and up and coming actors and actresses, The Legend of Tinker Hell from Acrostar Productions will bring the gore to a whole new level. Written by Steve

Ann Myrna

Hermann and Heidi Mikac plus the legend herself, Lynn Lowry, making her feature film directorial debut alongside award winning director/filmmaker Steve Hermann, The Legend of Tinker Hell will mix a little comedy with a whole lot of blood and guts. Learn more at TheLegendOfTinkerHell.com

I have several more dreams and goals that I am still working towards. James Bond would be a dream to be in, even if I were just in one scene and saying something that would be amazing because it is James Bond. One goal that I am working towards is getting The Frenzied Quill produced and distributed.

Paul Bagnall and I already have the script and we already have season 1 done, we are working on season 2. Mark Denham is ready to play Michael in The Frenzied Quill. There are always challenges in this industry, nothing comes easy but you take on everything and work on it.

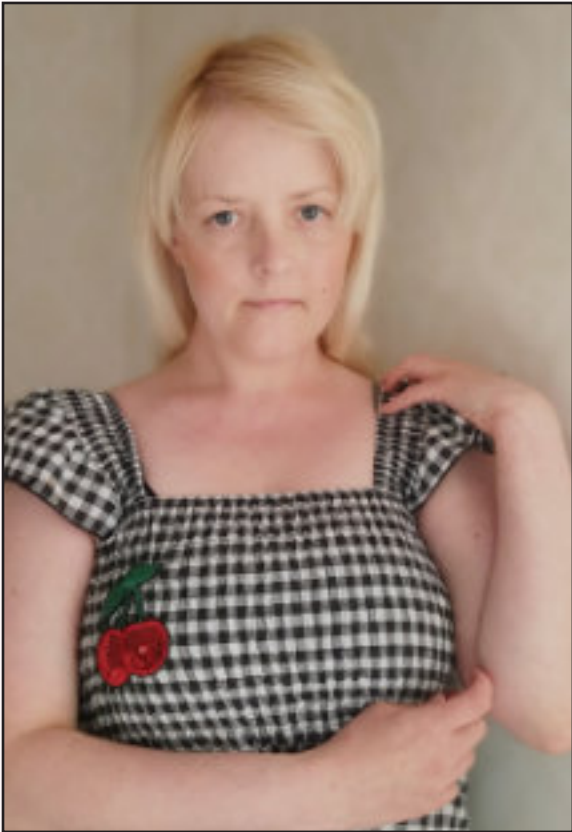

When I took on the challenge of becoming an actress, because I looked younger and got younger roles, I used to turn down certain roles, and now I accept them. Because of this, my careers have become better and more enjoyable. Challenges can be good for you and your careers, and help you grow.

My names Faye Delune, and I'm A Professional Model, Musician, Writer, Artist, Photographer, and Promoter, of over 10+ years, but I'm really just an all around creative person. I make a lot of different forms of content and art. Online Content is my main form of art tho. Honestly my dream is to just make art, and make others happy, but really, If I can spark a reaction of any kind from my art, then I've met my goal. I'm a huge nature lover, who's obsessed with all things astrology and space. so I try my best to incorporate nature and astrology into my work. But really, I just love bringing ideas, and stories to life with my art. Almost every image of either me, or my photography, I try to convey a story within it. "I'm A Blank Canvas, Give Me A Story To Tell." / "Lets Tell A Story." / "A Story Within Each Piece" Are the phrases I Use To Describe My Art. For the past 10 years, I've been studying and learning Modeling, Writing, Music, Art, Promotional Marketing and Photography, at The Professional Level and really enjoying the artistic aspect of it all. In the 10+ years, as a Model, Musician, Writer, Photographer, and Promoter, I have had the honor of being featured in/on countless of Magazines, Runways, Commercials, Editorials, Catalogs, Books, Websites, Social Medias, and more! I have also worked with several Brands, Companies, Businesses, Artists, Designers, Bands, and more! Throughout My Career, I Have Also Been Published Over 5 Thousand Times! I also have gotten 50+ Awards, 50+ Degree's, Certificates, Diplomas & Certifications! Through the years, I've had the pleasure of meeting a lot of very cool, interesting, and kind people. I'm a social butterfly, so obviously this was heaven for me. People leave impacts on you, and this job of mine, regardless of if I'm the model, musician, artist, writer, promoter or photographer, it allows me to meet lots of people, who usually leave impacts on me and vice versa.

I love making art, and love showing it off.

I hope you enjoy my work, and I welcome you to my world.

My name is Johnny Parrish.

My Dream.

When I was a young boy it was Elvis Presley who first inspired me to want to sing, he was and will always be the King of Rock 'n' Roll.

I would stand in front of my mirror, my hair Quiffed full of pomade, with a D A - Ducks Arse, sometimes I would use cooking oil, if I had no hair product left, at school I was teased about my hair and I was called 'chip pan' but I didn't care, my dream and goal from a boy was and has always been was to become a professional singer/entertainer/songwriter.

No matter what it took or how long it took, I was determined to achieve this goal.

Back to being a teenager, the pomade I used would stain my bed pillows at night, which my late Mum would tell him off for.

But I didn't care, for me it was all part of being an Elvis fan.

Also as a teenager I would turn my shirt collar's up, curling my top lip, holding my comb using it as a microphone, Shaking my legs, trying to wiggle my hips, singing loud and proud, and off key, along to my favourite Elvis songs.

In fact i still do this today, why grow up, enjoy life and do what makes you happy.

As I got I got older I started listening to other artists such as Roy Orbison, Tom Jones, Jerry Lee Lewis, Billy Fury, Chuck berry, Dean Martin, so many other artists and bands.

I would study these guys and watch how they performed, taking notes and learning all the time.

Roy Orbison inspired me to start writing my own songs.

Roy had an amazing unmatched vocal ability, he sings with so much passion, you can feel the heartbreak in his voice.

Roy wrote his songs his way, he was not afraid to write how he was feeling.

Running Scared, It's Over, Crying, Pretty Woman, Roy's songwriting was unique.

My late Mum bought me my first guitar, I taught myself play by watching and learning from other performers in bands.

My Goals.

I started to learn cover songs, and I tried to write my own songs. which I found was not easy, I knew in my mind and heart that I had to experience heartbreak to actually write about heartbreak, I knew I needed to love and to be loved to write about love.

I didn't want to be a phoney song writer.

I wanted my songs I wrote to discuss themes such as heartbreak, hope, love, faith, freedom, want, need and desire.

Through my music I wanted it to be melodic & memorable, whilst employing smart devices to enhance the themes to keep the listener consistently engaged, and at the same time, to try and be different. which is not easy.

I learned to sing and to write uniquely.

My voice has got shades of Roy Orbison & Elvis Presley.

Whilst at the same time retaining a character all of my own whilst singing from the heart.

I firmly believe now that all obstacles, both good and bad, that life throws at us, are the perfect source of inspiration for a meaningful, heartfelt song.

Being unafraid to express my deeper feelings and darkest thoughts.

Yet, at the same time, being aware that songs need to be uplifting, inspirational, and fun.

Achievements and Challenges.

After 20 years of trying to become a professional entertainer, after many failures, which I turned into learning lessons.

The need to do a boring day job, whilst keeping focused on my goals in my mind's eye wasn't easy, I wanted to give up many many times.

I had an audition to be part of an entertainment team on a cruise ship and was successful.

But, my Mum sadly had a brain aneurysm, which needed 9 hours of brain surgery. Mum survived and came through this horrific ordeal, but Mum was never to be the same again after this.

Mum needed 24/7 care. I turned down my entertainer opportunity on the cruise ships to become my Mum's full-time carer. I have to admit it was not easy at times, I took care of Mum's everyday needs.

Mum sadly over a very short time was diagnosed as a Paranoid schizophrenic, this was due to the frontal aneurysm.

Mum then slowly developed Dementia and Parkinson's and this was all within 2 years after her aneurism. But as challenging as this was, I proudly took care of her until she passed away.

Mum passed over on her birthday, and knowing my Mum that's what she planned to do.

Mum's view on life was to enjoy life and live life to the full, she told me not be sad when I am gone, as I will always be with you.

Mums passing has left a permanent hole in my heart.

Mum made me promise not to give up on my dreams and my lifelong goal of becoming a professional entertainer.

Around a year before Mum passed over, she told me to write a song about a Gypsy Girl, which I didn't have a clue how to write.

Mum was of Gypsy heritage, and while I was sitting with her trying to write the lyrics and guitar chords, she reminisced about how she and her whole family and other Gypsy families would work in the cherry fields. When it came to the weekend they would sit down outside in front of an open fire and sing songs. The young Gypsy

Girls would tease the Gypsy Boys with their sultry body language while dancing around the camp fire teasing the boys with their sexy deep dark eyes.

I wrote Gypsy Girl, but before I could record the song, sadly, Mum passed away.

Eventually I did record Gypsy Girl, and as I was starting to turn my life around from being an amateur to a professional entertainer, lockdown happened.

I took the lockdown time to work on my cover songs more and to also work on my original songs, I created my unique show of 1950's & 1960's songs. I had a website created.

When lockdown ended I couldn't get any work as an entertainer, my nerves were terrible, I had lost my confidence.

But all was not lost, I was contacted by a care home agent who came across my website by accident, he specialised in booking entertainers to sing at various care homes.

This became a great way for me to help get my confidence back, as I loved it, there is something magical about singing to an elderly resident in a care home who has dementia, who doesn't know what day of the week it is, but they remember the words the songs from their youth, it was great fun.

Then from this I gained my confidence and applied for an audition at BCM Entertainments Ltd, owned by Mr Ray Martin.

This was November 2024, and WOW, he has made a lot of my dreams and goals come true. I have entertained on Saga Cruise Ships, performed at lots of various holiday parks, Warner hotels, and his amazing 60's weekenders. I cannot thank him enough.

Now my last goal is to be known as a singer songwriter.

I am now signed with Deborah Fennella, The Head of A&R Special Edition Records, as a charity song writer. And it gets better as I will be signing with K Dragon Records which has happened with Deborah's guidance.

So now my next chapter begins on my road to hopefully become a known singer songwriter. I don't know if this will happen, but I am going to write and perform my heart out completely.

Life is certainly for living and for learning, but most importantly I will always stay and be Humble.

To be able to perform and to lift the spirits of an audience all I can say in one word is 'HEAVEN' I am blessed.

Wishing Love, Peace and Blessings, Live Life and Enjoy

Samuel Sithole is making waves in the entertainment industry! He was recently invited to attend the International Modelling Convention in New York (2022), a testament to his growing global recognition. Samuel has also been featured on Channel 147 Live, showcasing his talents during the Wedding Expo in Mpumalanga, which even made headlines in Lowveld News. He's grateful for the support of Elsubie Verlindin, who gave him the opportunity to pursue his dreams and showcase his skills. Samuel lives by the principle of embracing every opportunity that comes his way, and draws inspiration from industry greats - the late Chadwick Boseman in acting, and Audrey Lunda in modelling. With his star on the rise, Samuel continues to impress audiences with his talent and charisma.

My name is Sue Anna Lynn, and I'm an artist as well as, a wife, mother, stepmother, grandmother, daughter, sister, aunt and friend. I've always enjoyed creating and doing DIY projects. However, I didn't start painting and doing more fine art until about 8 years ago. My art journey really began as a means to cope when my father became ill. Right before my dad passed away I was showing him some of my artwork and one of the last things he said to me is that I should try selling it at the local swap meet. So, that's when I decided I wanted to be an artist. I began really creating a lot of art and started attending vendor events and trying to sell my art online. I consider myself a mixed media artist because I don't just create with one type of art. Although, my favorite and specialty would be fluid acrylic art. I also work with water colors, tie-dye, photography of nature and landscapes, and creating products using my cricut machine, as well as designing logos for businesses and sports team logos. My dream is to have my own studio and gallery where I can create both on canvas and upcycling, and recycling objects to keep them out of the landfills while also offering classes and paint parties. Until then I will settle for my studio my husband built me in our basement and my shed and continue to try to sell online.
