1. Glowing Skin

The dewy, natural glow is a trend that never seems to fade. Hollywood stars are now focusing on skincare as much as makeup. The look begins with a healthy skincare routine, followed by lightweight foundations and illuminating primers that enhance natural radiance. Products infused with hyaluronic acid and vitamin C are popular choices, giving the complexion a fresh, luminous finish. The goal? To look like you just stepped off the beach after a day of sunshine.

2. Bold Eye Makeup

Big, bold eyes are making a statement! Whether it's graphic liners, vibrant eyeshadows, or glitter accents, Hollywood's leading ladies are embracing their eyes as the focal point of their makeup. Bright neon colors, especially electric blues and rich purples, have surged in popularity, alongside graphic eyeliner styles ranging from dramatic winged looks to geometric patterns. This trend channels a sense of fun and creativity, allowing for plenty of artistic expression.

3. Retro Red Lips

Classic red lips are making a comeback, gracing the lips of many starlets on and off the red carpet. This timeless look exudes sophistication and confidence. The trend sees various shades of red—from deep burgundies to bright, cherry reds—used to complement different skin tones. Pairing a bold lip with minimal eye makeup creates a chic contrast, classic with a modern twist.

4. Natural Brows

The heavily sculpted, Instagram-ready brows are stepping back as more Hollywood celebrities embrace a softer, more natural brow. This trend emphasizes fuller brows with a slightly untamed look, achieved through the use of brow gels and pencils that mimic natural hair. The goal is to frame the face while maintaining an effortless vibe that aligns with the clean beauty movement gaining traction in Hollywood.

5. Soft Blush and Monochromatic Looks

Soft, diffused blush is being swept across the cheeks to create a youthful flush, often extending to the temples for a seamless and cohesive look. This trend often goes hand-in-hand with monochromatic makeup, where cheeks, lips, and eyes are harmonized using a single shade or color palette. Blushes in soft pinks and peaches, paired with matching lip tints, create an ethereal, almost dreamy effect that complements the glowing skin trend beautifully.

6. Glossy Eyes

Forget matte finishes; glossy eyelids are taking over. This trend, which reflects light beautifully and enhances the eyes' natural allure, is often achieved with clear or tinted lip gloss applied over eyeshadow or directly onto the eyelids. Celebrities are enhancing their eye looks with this glassy finish, making their eyes appear larger and more luminous.

7. Eco-Friendly and Clean Beauty

As environmental consciousness rises, Hollywood is increasingly turning towards eco-friendly and clean beauty products. Stars are prioritizing brands that use sustainable ingredients and packaging, showing a commitment to ethical beauty practices. This trend not only influences what products are popular but challenges the industry to innovate sustainably.

I love being in the Talent industry, I started modelling in 2018, became an actress in 2019 and started my business Talent Image Entertainment Ltd November 2019 and have loved the constant growth of the business, we are now Multi Award Winning. I have always loved to read and write and so as a sudden traumatic experience hit my family through neighbours harrasement I wrote my book The Naked Truth which was released in January 2026.

I have many clients, colleagues & associates worldwide with all ranges of Talent.

I am an events manager and have arranged three events so far which have been extremely successful and looking forward to arranging another one for my book signing later this year.

I have been to Palace Of Westminster twice, once to give a speech about my business and the second for Elite Women Collective Networking Group Event which you can find on my social media.

I have won multi awards with PANACHE GLOBAL ENTERTAINMENT AWARDS & WOMENS BUSINESS CLUB and awarded multiple times for my photography.

My name is Liza Crilly Tyner of Namli InCompany Photography and I have built my journey in photography around a clear and evolving vision: to create images that feel raw, emotional, and deeply human, while still carrying the presence of high-end, editorial artistry. As a professional photographer based in Southern California with over 15 years of experience, my goal is not just to capture beautiful photos, but to build a legacy through storytelling—focusing on confidence, connection, and authenticity in every person I photograph. I am especially drawn to family, portrait, and boudoir photography, often working in natural coastal environments where light and emotion come together in an organic way. At the same time, I continue to push my creativity by exploring high fashion, fantasy, and luxury editorial styles, blending realism with imagination in a way that feels intentional and real.

Through Namli InCompany Photography, I have developed a strong and recognizable brand identity that reflects both elegance and emotional depth. I have created campaigns, promotional materials, and full ad systems that mirror magazine-level quality, while also collaborating with a wide range of clients and notable individuals. These achievements represent not only my experience, but my ability to turn vision into something consistent, powerful, and marketable.

My dreams are centered on growth—both creatively and professionally. I want to elevate my brand to stand alongside high fashion publications and major creative platforms, while still staying true to the authenticity that defines my work. I am passionate about meeting new people, working with new models, and creating images that help others see themselves as confident, strong, and seen. I also recognize the challenges I face, from balancing realism with high-fashion polish to maintaining consistency across my brand while growing a business. But those challenges continue to shape me, refine my skills, and push me closer to the legacy I am determined to create.

My name Liza Crilly Tyner and Through everything I've built with Namli InCompany Photography, my path reflects a strong drive to create work that is both emotionally powerful and professionally elevated. My dream is to capture images that feel raw, real, and deeply human—photos that don't just look beautiful but make people feel confident, seen, and empowered. I'm not aiming for ordinary photography; I'm developing a signature style that blends authenticity with a high-end, editorial finish.

My goals are focused on growing my brand into a recognized luxury-level presence, using refined ads, magazine-style campaigns, and creative concepts that range from family and beach sessions to bold fashion and fantasy work. I want my work to stand out not just for how it looks, but for how it makes people feel. Along the way, I've already achieved a lot—I've built a distinct visual identity, created consistent campaign layouts, and developed strong creative direction across multiple styles while staying true to my brand.

At the same time, I face challenges that come with growth. I'm constantly working to balance realism with artistic enhancement, making sure my edits stay natural while still feeling polished and elevated. I'm also pushing myself to stand out in a competitive market and turn my creative vision into a sustainable, scalable business. But through it all, I'm continuing to refine my craft, knowing that every step is bringing me closer to a brand that is both emotionally authentic and undeniably high-end.

My name is Sarah Nicole Lottinville. Although, I look a little younger, I am currently 37 years old. I started the modeling and acting world relatively late, comparatively speaking. But I have big dreams. One day I want to model for Victoria Secret... Sports Illustrated... Inked...Glamour...Glitz and their respective magazines. I love doing photoshoots and feel like I have really found my lane. Going to various locations has been a dream come true in it's own as I've always wanted to travel and, even though I'm starting only in surrounding areas, it feels like I'm where I am supposed to be. My goals are to become signed with either one agency or several, both for modeling and acting and be able to live by my dreams and lasting passions. Over the last year I have gone on over 20 photoshoots and have many more lined up for the next couple of weeks. I hope to continue to grow and find new ways and other people who will help challenge me and push me onto higher levels. I would love to both be a part of your team, and add you onto mine. With love, Sarah Nicole Lottinville
