My name is Ahmarria Marie, I have been modeling for 5 years and aspire to continue to grow within the industry. Growing up my mother would dress me up and have me pose in the backyard while she took photos of me on her camera. We would watch Americas next top model together, and when I got a call from a Disney casting director for an interview in Boston my mom thought it was a scam and didn't allow me to go. I cried for weeks and felt like my dreams were crushed. Then puberty hit and I was very insecure about my body as most young ladies going through puberty are. Moving to Florida at 17 years old is what helped me get out of my comfort zone, build up my confidence and pursue modeling on a more serious note. Getting legitimate bookings while working full time and school full-time was tough at first which made me want to quit at times but pushing through that was the best decision. Ive been in two fashion shows for 3 different designers, Ive acted in an independent movie, i've gained experience through promotional and marketing work and am signed with a few modeling/promotional agencies. The joy and self confidence I gain from modeling is unmatched, learning how to love every inch of my body while encouraging others to do the same has been a blessing. I appreciate all of the support I've gotten throughout my modeling journey, on my worst days the support is what gets me through. My goal is to continue perfecting my craft as a model in order to make my dream a full-time reality.

Hi my name is Alina and I am a model and photographer. This was never my dream I fell into it less than a year ago and been going since because this is what I love now. I've reached many of my goals in such a short amount of time and have many more. I want women to know that no matter shape or size you are beautiful. My whole life I've always been told I need to eat more and that's the thing I've never had an eating disorder. Russian genetics and high metabolism have a play in my body image. Which this being said one of my biggest achievements for modeling and photography is showing other women that you can model. Women have reached out to me for my photography services and i have never turned one down. I want women to feel complete in their own skin and that is a challenge that I as model and photographer have faced along with many women who have reached out to me. You should feel loved and happy in your own skin.

I've accomplished everything I've set out to from shooting for Kink, which is the world's largest bdsm site, to being a multi published model. However, I am going to finish my degree which is in the works.

Christie
Kratz

"Hello, I'm Christie Kratz. As a young child, I was fully submerged in the professional modeling industry for over fifteen years. Much of my time was for weekly print fashion and magazine advertising for various clothing brands. My most rewarding experience was on a billboard over interstate I-80 in Nebraska for the local news channel! Time passed, and during my time away from professional modeling I competed in numerous fitness and bodybuilding competitions winning many awards. I have also been raising my three young boys during this time. This past year I have been enjoying adding to my modeling collection once again. I love to perform and be in front of the camera and love a good adventure! In addition to modeling, I have a degree in Health Education and Nutrition and am a personal trainer. I am so thankful for the people God has placed in my life, especially my photographers."

My name is Destiny Pfeiffer, otherwise known as \_dreamydestiny on IG. I am 25 years old and absolutely love what I do. I am a fashion model, and I model for multiple brands. Modeling has my heart and I put everything I have into it. I've worked really hard to get to where I'm at today, but I also enjoy every minute of it! My favorite thing about modeling would have to be trying out fun new poses and getting to meet so many new friendly people; photographers, other models, and stylists. I also love seeing the art that we create in the camera after a shoot and being able to go reward myself with a yummy meal afterwards. The hardest part of what I do is coming up with something new and unique every time I shoot. I hope and plan to be published and eventually become a traveling model, but I'm happy with what I've done so far and am thankful for all the fans I already have ♡

I am changing my look and my exposure. I have mainly modeled in the LoRider car industry and was looking to branch out into swimsuit and boudoir modeling. So my goal is to gain a following in magazines other than car model magazines.
