Brandi Bravado was born in Brooklyn, New York and raised sunny South Florida. Brandi grew up with a love for the classics - emphasizing on America's golden age of the 1950s and 60s through her father's cars & music. Her fascination with the era only grew during her teen years. She began learning how to style her hair and wardrobe. Her first vivid memory of this comes from a loving gift of a 1930's black tuxedo style jumpsuit that Brandi's grandmother had saved for her all that time.

For the past few years, Brandi has had her own resurgence of experimenting again with the vintage styles she cherished when she was younger. Since then, she began to connect with other likeminded individuals with the same love for the flair of yesteryear. Brandi has competed in several local pinup contests. She's won "Crowd Favorite" twice with her panache and shining personality capturing the attention of the audience.

I have been interested in being a model since I was 16 and one of my biggest dream is modelling for top fashion houses in the world like Gucci and channel etc. Also making a big name for myself in the industry.

One of my goals is to move to Europe in the coming years. I also plan to be a top model and be in the list of top models soon and I can't wait. Growing a fashion boutique and styling celebrities, seeing myself on billboards and making TV appearances and so much more are also in my bucket list.

Being featured in two TV adverts for a top mobile service provider and modelling for a few clothing brands in my country have been some of the achievements I'm really proud of.

My biggest challenge has been choosing between settling on modelling as a career which I must admit has been a hard decision not yet settled on yet. Also balancing between modelling, school and building my other career as an accountant has really been a challenge.

Growing up, one of the main challenges I faced (and still struggle with now) was how I verbally communicate. My soft spoken voice ostracized me from my peers, and it didn't help that I was also shy, so I grew up more socially stunted compared to others. So, I turned to arts. I sang. I found my own personal fashion style. The arts gave me a voice when I didn't believe I had one. I believe it's so important for people to have a creative outlet in the arts: Modeling, acting, singing, dancing, writing, the list goes on. Expression is the most powerful tool we have, and I want to inspire others to express themselves as passionately and creatively as possible. I want to show others like me, who were ostracized for being different or not as socially adept, that they can find their voice in other ways that are uniquely theirs.

Bella is an 11 year old aspiring model and dancer. She is graceful, confident and loves to be in front of the camera. She has been dancing since she was 4 years old. Dance is her passion. Her favorite dance styles are hip hop, lyrical, tap and musical theater. She joined pre-competitive dance team in the Dance Deluxe studio last year and it has been a joy to watch her progress and all the new skills she has learned. Last week she signed her first contract with modeling agency in Arizona called The Young Agency and had her first professional pictures taken. That was a wonderful experience for her and she really enjoyed it. She is very excited to see what other opportunities lie ahead in her future. On top of these extracurricular activities, she is also a straight A's student and a proud member of the National Honor Society. Keep going Bella, your future is bright!
