Azzan Loper

Azzan modeled my Men's Collection for a paid Photo Shoot entitled PBM Glam Squad back in 2018. His Mother Donnetta Loper came up with the name to also advertise her business as a Makeup Artist. I have been working with Donnetta for more than 5 years doing fashion shows, and photo shoots and etc. Azzan made my Men's Collection come to life through photos. I am so glad that I got to work with him.

Courtney has been modeling my clothing brand last year. She contacted me through Model Mayhem wanting to work with me. Her portfolio stood out and so did her catwalk. She made my collection along with matching masks come to life through photos. I am so glad that I got the chance to work with her.

Imani

I am a scientist and photographer living in the Washington DC area. Early on, I was mainly a landscape and wild-life photographer. As an outdoor photographer, I was fortunate enough to travel to many countries in six continents and capture many unique and beautiful moments. In the past two years, I have become passionate about portrait photography capturing the spirit and essence of people. Being a scientist, I love experimenting with my photography whatever the genre.

I have known Imani, a senior in high school for a long time. Since being a child, tennis was always her passion. She started playing tennis at the age of 8 years old and quickly grew to love it. She traveled across the country to play tournaments. As of right now she is a 3 star tennis recruit, ranked top five in the state of Maryland. She was recruited to play tennis at multiple D1,D2, and D3 colleges. She ended up choosing Johns Hopkins University in order to pursue her other passion, helping others. She plans on studying Biology at Hopkins in the premed track and plans on attending medical school. Using her experience from the tennis court, she wants to translate her knowledge of the human body by being a doctor. She acquired a great deal of knowledge from her own injuries and from her training. By studying Anatomy and Physiology in school, she was able to use her knowledge and apply it to herself on the tennis court. She hopes to do the same in the future as an Orthopedic Surgeon.

Imani wanted some tennis senior pictures, and I loved the idea! We took our time doing the photoshoot and at the same time having fun and documenting all of the moments. We did some action shots as well as some stills. I am so glad to have worked with Imani and looking forward to working with her again.

Imani

I am a 40-year-old mother of 4 and a licensed psychologist. I had a lifelong dream of becoming a model at the age of 20. They told me at the agency that I am too short. When I came back 20 years later, a different agency accepted me, and now I am a published model and an actress. I believe, whatever we put our mind to, we can achieve. The sky is the limit to where our imagination can take us. I am a dreamer, a writer and I empower my clients, women especially, to chase their dreams and to believe in themselves. In the past year, I also overcame my fear of flying and flew back to my home country and a few others. I was afraid of public speaking but now give seminars and did podcasts. I blossomed as a person and all because I made that powerful choice. We all can do it!

I started my very first dance class when I was three, and I absolutely loved it. My parents originally signed me up because I was always dancing around the house, and they definitely made the right decision to sign me up. I started dancing competitively when I was 7 and have been dancing competitively ever since (6 years). My favorite style is a tie between jazz and contemporary since they both use so much energy and power. In my future, I would love to open my own dance studio. It makes me so happy to think that one day I could teach others something that brings me and many others so much joy. Last year, I won second overall at a competition and this year I'm aiming to win first overall. But dance isn't only about winning, it's about having fun and enjoying what you're doing. I've met so many amazing people in the dance world, and I thank everyone so much that I've met. I especially thank my dance teachers for teaching me everything that I know today. I can't wait to see what the future brings for me in the dance world!
