From a young age I wanted to be everything, from a doctor to lawyer to actress to someone who finds the cure to cancer! People have often told me my goals were unrealistic and that I couldn't do it all, but at the age of 16 I'm signed with 2 modeling agencies, walking 3 fashion weeks this year, and even became vice president of a small company! If there is something I could tell upcoming models and all the beautiful young ladies is to never give up and to follow your heart!
