My name is Brooklyn Stukel. I am 18 years old. I have been dancing since I was just 1.5 years old. I am currently studying Dance Performance at Centennial College in Scarborough, Ontario, Canada. After completion of my two year college diploma, I would like to embark on a professional dance career on cruise ships, Disney World, NYC, or on film/television. Modelling is a newer experience for me. I have been fortunate to take coaching classes with Canada's top runway coach Jessica Gregory as well as New York's Mandy Dyonne Lieveld. I was chosen to model for Mila Hoffman in a designer gown in Fashion Week 2024, Milan, Italy. This was an amazing experience working with many photographers, make up design artists and other models. I have completed photo shoots in New York City, Los Angeles, Phoenix, and Niagara Falls working with many outstanding photographers. I have been featured in Elle October 2024, Bloom, Yes Fashion, and iDance magazines. I have been fortunate to have been cast in my first commercial. This experience was surreal. I enjoyed being able to learn so much about the industry and look forward to upcoming opportunities. My dance background compliments modelling. I am a well rounded dancer who studies various dance forms. I have been performing for audiences, doing what I love for Hóffman in a designer gown in Fashion Week performing for audiences, doing what I love for many years. I started with the Greater Niagara Ballet Company starring in The Nutcracker and Peter & the Wolf. I will never forget the feeling as dancing Clara. I have been a team member of World Performers Canada who competes at The Dance World Cup in Europe. Earning a bronze in 2020, and a silver and gold medal in 2021. I will be performing again this July 2025 as I represent my country. I perform yearly with FiveStar Dance Company as resort entertainment in Mexico. I also have been a performer in the Miss Universe Canada pageant in 2022 and 2024. I am always looking to further my training by joining conventions, and classes with a range of amazing professionals. I can't wait to continue my journey!
