Chasing Dreams, One Step (and Sometimes Stumble) at a Time

From a young age, I dreamed of a life filled with creativity—whether gardening, sewing, cooking, or later, stepping in front of a camera. But like many dreams, the path to reaching them wasn't always straightforward.

One of my biggest goals has always been to create a life I'm proud of—one built on passion, resilience, and a bit of sparkle. Pursuing modeling and acting as an adult, after first building a career in a completely different field, has been one of my proudest achievements. I stepped into an industry with no formal background and quickly learned that success isn't about having all the answers—it's about being willing to learn, fall, and keep going anyway.

Of course, the journey hasn't been without its challenges. Balancing ambition with real-life responsibilities, facing rejection, and pushing through moments of doubt are all part of the story. But every obstacle has made me stronger, more determined, and more grateful for every opportunity that comes my way.

Today, I'm living proof that dreams don't have an expiration date. Whether stepping in front of the camera for a shoot I used only to dream about, acting in films, or continuing to grow as an artist, I'm just getting started. Jordan Lipscomb

Brushstrokes of the Soul: Jordan Lipscomb's Artful Journey in Gunnison, Colorado In the heart of the Rocky Mountains, nestled between rolling valleys and open skies, lives an artist whose work reflects not only the breathtaking beauty of Colorado's high country but also the complex emotional landscape of the human experience. Jordan Lipscomb, founder of Jordan Lipscomb Art (JLA) | Vibrant Visions, is a painter, storyteller, and creative force who has turned Gunnison into both a sanctuary and a canvas. Originally from a more urban setting, Jordan arrived in Gunnison seeking a quieter life and deeper inspiration. "There's something sacred about the solitude here," Jordan says. "You can hear yourself think, feel every color, and create without the static of the outside world." Lipscomb's work ranges from vivid acrylic landscapes to abstract emotional pieces, often layered with texture, symbolism, and unexpected color palettes. Each piece tells a story—some personal, some mythological, others inspired by local folklore and the natural rhythms of Colorado's wilderness. But painting is only part of Jordan's creative identity. As a published author and former digital marketing entrepreneur, Jordan brings a rare mix of narrative depth and business savvy to the art world. Their blog, Vibrant Visions, is a raw, evocative look into the intersections of creativity, healing, and reinvention. What sets Jordan apart is not just talent—it's resilience. After a major life shift and heartbreak, Jordan rebuilt their world through art, choosing expression over silence and community over isolation. That journey is evident in every canvas and paragraph they share. In addition to painting, Jordan also hosts workshops, collaborates with other local artists, and is a vocal supporter of Gunnison's creative community. "Art should be lived in, shared, and seen," Jordan says. "Gunnison has a lot of hidden voices. I want to help amplify them." Jordan's studio, located at 1010 West Virginia

Avenue, doubles as a gallery space where visitors are welcomed into the process—often greeted by the smell of paint, soft music, and the warmth of a creator who sees beauty in both chaos and clarity. With over 100,000 followers on social media and a growing list of collectors, Jordan Lipscomb is quickly becoming one of Gunnison's most recognizable creative names. But to those who know them, they're more than that—they're a reminder that art can be a way home. MES CONSEILS POUR METTRE EN VALEUR
VOTRE PROPRIÉTÉ CET ÉTÉ!

- ✓ Aménagement soigné: Assurez-vous que la pelouse est tondue, que les mauvaises herbes dans les parterres de fleurs sont éliminées et que la façade de la maison est propre et attrayante. Un coup de peinture frais sur la porte d'entrée peut faire des merveilles.
- ✓ Faire des travaux d'entretien: Profitez de la période estivale pour régler les petits problèmes d'entretien, comme les robinets qui fuient, les ampoules grillées, les portes qui grince, etc.
- ✓ Jouer avec la lumière naturelle: L'été, la lumière naturelle est abondante. Ouvrez les rideaux, les stores et les volets pour laisser entrer la lumière. Assurez-vous que les fenêtres sont propres pour maximiser la luminosité à l'intérieur.
- ✓ Créer une ambiance estivale: Des coussins colorés sur la pelouse et une table dressée pour un barbecue imaginaire dans le cour peuvent aider les acheteurs potentiels à visualiser leur vie estivale dans la maison. Ajoutez des touches décoratives comme des lanternes, des plantes en pot et des meubles d'extérieur confortables afin de rendre votre extérieur plus chaleureux et accueillant.
- ✓ Une pelouse verte: Un beau gazon peut augmenter la valeur de votre maison, assurez-vous de bien l'arroser et la fertiliser lors des canicules.

My name is Sarah Gardner and from a young age, music has been part of my soul's language. I first picked up the recorder at school and then progressed to the flute, learning not only how to play but also how to read and write music. I immersed myself in the school's musical world—Monday wind band rehearsals, Wednesday lunchtime orchestra, and regular music lessons that built the foundation for a lifelong love of sound and storytelling.

Performing in school concerts and later at a local theatre with an orchestra gave me confidence, joy, and a sense of belonging. That creative spark only grew brighter as life unfolded. My husband, Steve, is a talented musician and songwriter, and together we have woven music into the heart of our family life. One of our most treasured memories is when our daughter Seren, just seven years old, wrote her own song and sang it with our friend Caroline—known musically as CeeCee. It was a proud and emotional moment that reminded me just how powerful and instinctive music can be.

Inspired by that, I wrote a poem—more of a lyrical message, really—dedicated to Seren. It was a love letter, a life lesson, a mother's guide to her daughter. Steve transformed my words into a beautiful song, reworking the lyrics and composing the melody. CeeCee gave it voice. We called the song "Grace" and from that, our band Lost Comms Procedure was born.

Sarah Gardner

Creating that song was a turning point—it became more than music. It became a mission.

Despite being a full-time working mum, I've always felt a deep calling to serve others. Over the years, I've founded three charities and co-chaired another, each born from a desire to make a real difference. One of those charities is Serving Our Superheroes, which supports frontline workers and vulnerable people with love, care, and dignity. The music we've written is now being used to raise funds for this cause—a beautiful example of how art and altruism can coexist.

Of course, the path hasn't been without its challenges. Balancing motherhood, a demanding professional life, and charitable work while nurturing creativity is no small feat. There have been moments of exhaustion, self-doubt, and sacrifice. But every note played, every lyric sung, reminds me why I started.

My dream is to continue writing meaningful music that connects, heals, and inspires. My goal is to grow Lost Comms Procedure, using our art to amplify voices and uplift communities. And my biggest achievement so far? Turning love—for my daughter, for music, for humanity—into something that resonates far beyond the walls of our home.

This is just the beginning.
