Bryant O'Donnell: Transforming Trials into Triumph for a World Without AIDS

By: Bryantthevibe

In the heart of a small, rural town, where resources were scarce and inclusive education even scarcer, Bryant O'Donnell forged his own path to become a beacon of hope, resilience, and unapologetic authenticity. A proud activist, influencer, entertainer, host, and promoter, Bryant's journey is a testament to turning life's challenges into a powerful force for change. His story, brimming with courage and purpose, is one that inspires and uplifts, making him a true luminary in the fight for HIV awareness and LGBTQ+ advocacy.

Growing up in the 1990s, Bryant faced a world where being part of the LGBTQ+ community was rarely discussed openly, especially within his own family. Without role models to guide him or access to comprehensive education about HIV, he navigated his identity and life lessons through sheer determination. "I had to create my own persona," Bryant shares, reflecting on his journey of self-discovery. At 23, he came out, embarking on a decade-long relationship that culminated in a six-year marriage. Though the marriage ended in divorce, Bryant views this moment not as a setback but as the spark that ignited his true self. "It was the start of stepping into who I truly was," he says with conviction.

Just one week after his divorce, Bryant faced another life-altering moment: an HIV-positive diagnosis on October 27, 2021. What could have been a devastating blow became the cornerstone of his life's mission. "I turned what was supposed to take me out into my guiding light," he declares.

Today, Bryant is a passionate spokesmodel for HIV Stops with Me, one of New York State's largest and longest-running HIV campaigns. As a New York State Certified Peer Worker in HIV and Harm Reduction, and a graduate with an Associate of Applied Science in Community & Human Services, he has transformed his personal struggles into a platform for advocacy and education.

Bryant's motto, "Turning My Mess into a Message & My Vulnerability into a Superpower," encapsulates his dynamic work as a motivational speaker and "edutainer." As the Founder, Director, and CEO of RaisingA The VIBRATION, he channels his energy into uplifting communities, breaking stigma, and fostering hope. His previous roles as a Ryan White Case Manager at the Southern Tier AIDS Program, Inc., and Director of Recreation at Norwich Rehabilitation and Nursing Center showcase his commitment to service. "I speak out, not for myself, but to be a voice for those who've had theirs taken from them," he says, his words resonating with purpose.

As an LGBTQ+ activist, Bryant is relentless in his dedication to HIV prevention and awareness. His mission is clear: to end the stigma surrounding HIV, break the cycle of silence, and celebrate a future free from AIDS. With every speech, every campaign, and every heartfelt connection, Bryant O'Donnell is not just raising the vibration—he's rewriting the narrative, proving that vulnerability is indeed a superpower. Join him in his unstoppable pursuit of a brighter, healthier, and more inclusive world.

Bunny Bee, also known as the glamorous blonde, is the owner of La Burla Bee, Colorado Springs' first and only full-time cabaret. With over 16 years of performance experience, Bunny has solidified her place as one of the most influential figures in the burlesque scene. She has headlined performances and been featured at over 30 burlesque festivals and countless venues worldwide, earning her a reputation as an internationally recognized burlesque performer.

Starting her burlesque career in 2009, Bunny's dream was always to create a space for artistic expression and inclusiveness, leading to the opening of La Burla Bee in 2021. As a business owner, she has been instrumental in establishing her cabaret as a thriving hub of entertainment and culture. Bunny's venue has not only become a staple in Colorado Springs, but it's also won over 60 awards, including being named the #1 overall bar in the region and receiving recognition in arts and hospitality sectors.

Burlesque Career and Community Leadership

In addition to her entrepreneurial pursuits, Bunny's influence on the burlesque world is undeniable. Since 2014, she has served on the Board of the Burlesque Hall of Fame (BHof) in Las Vegas and was the Chair of the Board from 2021 to 2023. She has also been a co-owner of the Colorado Burlesque Festival and received numerous accolades for her contributions to the art form. Locally, she was featured by the Cultural Office of the Pikes Peak Region as one of thirty-one artists during their Arts Month, becoming the first burlesque performer to receive such an honor.

Bunny was voted Best Artist in Colorado Springs for three consecutive years — 2022, 2023, and 2024 — by the Best of Colorado Springs Indy Awards, making her the first burlesque performer to earn this distinction. Her recognition reflects her deep commitment to not only performing but also advocating for the burlesque community and its rich history. Bunny's achievements on a global scale demonstrate her leadership in both the arts and the cultural community.

Modeling Career

Beyond burlesque, Bunny Bee is also a well-regarded figure in the modeling industry. Known for her striking beauty and confident demeanor, she has collaborated with a range of renowned photographers, brands, and promotional campaigns, including partnerships with bikini brands and Playboy. Her modeling work has earned her significant notoriety, making her a respected name in both the burlesque and fashion communities.

Her modeling career, much like her burlesque performances, emphasizes body positivity, self-expression, and empowerment. Whether she's captured in bold, glamorous pinup-style photography or more modern, edgy shoots, Bunny's modeling work continues to challenge beauty standards and encourage others to embrace their unique forms of beauty.

Challenges

Bunny's journey hasn't been without challenges. Opening La Burla Bee required navigating a complex and often unpredictable business landscape, particularly during uncertain times. Despite these challenges, Bunny's determination has kept her moving forward. She views setbacks as opportunities to grow, which has only made her more resilient in her pursuit of excellence.

Reflections

Bunny Bee's story is one of perseverance, vision, and an unyielding commitment to both her craft and her community. From burlesque stages to modeling shoots and running a successful cabaret, she's proven time and time again that with passion, dedication, and resilience, dreams can be turned into transformative realities. Her advocacy for self-love, body positivity, and artistic expression continues to inspire and empower individuals in the burlesque and modeling worlds alike.

MES CONSEILS POUR METTRE EN VALEUR VOTRE PROPRIÉTÉ CET ÉTÉ!

- ✓ Amenager et soigner: Assurez-vous que la pelouse est tondue, que les mauvaises herbes dans les parterres de fleurs sont maîtrisées et que la façade de la maison est propre et attrayante. Un coup de peinture frais sur la porte d'entrée peut faire des merveilles.
- ✓ Faire des travaux d'entretien: Profitez de la période estivale pour régler les petits problèmes d'entretien, comme les robinets qui fuient, les ampoules grillées, les portes qui grince, etc.
- ✓ Jouer avec la lumière naturelle: L'été, la lumière naturelle est abondante. Ouvrez rideaux, les stores et les volets pour laisser entrer la lumière. Assurez-vous que les fenêtres sont propres pour maximiser la luminosité à l'intérieur.
- ✓ Créer une ambiance estivale: Des coussins colorés sur la pelouse et une table dressée pour un barbecue imaginaire dans le cour peuvent aider les acheteurs potentiels à visualiser leur vie estivale dans la maison. Ajoutez des touches décoratives comme des lanternes, des plantes en pot et des meubles d'extérieur confortables afin de rendre votre extérieur plus chaleureux et accueillant.
- ✓ Une pelouse verte: Un beau gazon peut augmenter la valeur de votre maison, assurez-vous de bien l'arroser et la fertiliser lors des canicules.

Shawnta Hill

From Shadows to Spotlight: The Rise of Shawnta Hill

Born DiShawnta Hill in Harrisburg, Pennsylvania, Shawnta Hill's journey is one marked by resilience, self-discovery, and brilliance that refuses to be dimmed. Raised in the 80s and 90s in a close-knit, family-oriented environment, her childhood was filled with both challenges and enduring support. Despite facing peer pressure and limited resources, Hill credits her upbringing—and a family that stood strong together—for helping her weather early storms.

As a teen, she stepped into motherhood, with no ambition beyond becoming a good mom. "I tried my best to stay clear of the spotlight," she recalls, even though her beauty never went unnoticed. Childhood days spent in pageants and cheerleading, with dresses hand-sewn by her mother, made her no stranger to the stage—but never its center.

It wasn't until her late 30s that Hill chose to rewrite her narrative. Modeling, originally a confidence-building exercise, became a gateway to creative expression. And it took off. She began landing billboards, magazine spreads, fashion shows, and stylized photoshoots, all while staying true to herself: shy, goofy, nerdy, and deeply authentic. "I came in late at 39, but nothing can stop me now—and I'm not even up yet," she says at 41, with fire in her eyes and more to prove.

A self-proclaimed "Queen of many crowns," Hill is more than a model. She's a mother, entrepreneur, fashion designer, writer, and artist. Her small business, SoFresh Cleaning Service, speaks to her work ethic and ambition to build generational wealth. "Hey Momma, I made it," she beams—a testament to what believing in yourself can truly manifest.

Shawnta Hill is proof that it's never too late to shine, especially when you stop counting yourself out. She didn't ask to be a model—but she became one. And in doing so, she's inspiring others to embrace the unexpected paths that lead to purpose.

"I'm not done yet. The crown fits—and I'm wearing it!"

I never thought I wanted to be a model. A friend happened to ask me to participate in a domestic violence awareness event where she needed people to model and represent those who have passed away from Domestic Violence. It was there that I felt empowered and I wanted to help others feel the same. We grow up thinking that models have to be a size 3 or can't have curves. But I'm here to show you can! Being my authentic self. 5'2 curvy, fearless self with locs in my hair. I hope I am an inspiration to others especially little girls who dream of one day walking a runway. I'm here to tell them they can and they will if they work hard and stay true to themselves.

My goal in modeling is to achieve a diverse portfolio, showcasing my range and skills showing my abilities to attract crucial clients to work with me, to connect with photographers, designer, stylist, and other models in the industry when the opportunity presents itself, to gain experience in different type of modeling to improve those skills that I have in modeling. Define a unique style expressing myself, and hopefully earn a consistent income for modeling, build a reputation for being professional, reliable, and easy to work with.
