Danica

My name is Wheatley. I am 37. I've been tattooing since I was 17 so it's about 21 years. I've been a professional artist in Austin Texas since 2011. I hope to one day open up my own tattoo studio in a warehouse which joins my second passion, Vintage cars. I have a 73 Chevy G2 van, I built the engine myself. His name is Steve BlueChevy. he's baby blue, obvi . eventually I want this warehouse to become built out in a loft style on the second floor where I can house foster kids. I want to teach them a skilled trade so that when they age out of the system, they don't have to live on the street and sale ass. My hope is to teach them auto mechanics, motorcycle mechanics, or tattooing whichever one they feel more drawn to. I'm 37 and I don't have any kids. I don't think that's going to happen for me so it's my way of leaving my Mark on this world and nurturing my motherly drive. I grew up in very unstable conditions. I've been homeless many times and tattooing is the only thing that's kept me from being dead in a ditch. My love for cars came out of necessity. I couldn't afford to pay for repairs so I learned how to repair them myself. I went to school and got a degree in it eventually. I'm thankful for my tenacity and my unwavering stubbornness to get me through learning to wrench and tattoo. Back then there wasn't very many female tattoo artist. it felt very daunting at times. I've had multiple men through out my life, tell me I will never be as good as them, but because I'm pretty I'll always do OK. I used to hate the people that said those things to me, but now I appreciate them for what they did for me because it lit the fire in my stomach to keep going, to push through and become better than anybody who has ever said that to me. There are many great artists out there better than me but I can say with pride "go fuck yourself, I tattoo better than you" to anyone who's ever equated my success to my age and looks instead of my hard work and perseverance.

Ellie is a 15-year-old model and dancer from a small town outside of Boston, Massachusetts. Her dreams are to become a professional dancer and work in the commercial dance industry, performing in music videos, live shows, and on stage. She is passionate about dance because it allows her to express herself, build confidence, and connect with others.

One of her biggest goals is to continue improving my technique and performance quality while gaining more professional experience. I hope to attend a college that supports both my dance training and my interest in business so I can understand the industry from both a creative and professional perspective.

She is proud of her achievements so far, including walking in New York Fashion week (twice!), competing in dance competitions, performing in the opening number of the Industry Dance Awards and Gala of the Stars, dancing with Jojo Siwa, being in music videos, television shows, and podcasts. She is also set to walk in Paris Fashion Week this upcoming fall.

However, her journey has not been without challenges. Balancing school, dance, and personal life can be difficult, and there are times when she feels the pressure to succeed or compare herself to others. Despite this, she has learned the importance of perseverance, hard work, and staying true to herself.

Overall, Ellie's journey as a dancer and model continues to shape who she is, and she is excited to keep working toward her dreams while overcoming any challenges that come her way.

Through everything I've built with Namli InCompany Photography, my path reflects a strong drive to create work that is both emotionally powerful and professionally elevated. My dream is to capture images that feel raw, real, and deeply human—photos that don't just look beautiful but make people feel confident, seen, and empowered. I'm not aiming for ordinary photography; I'm developing a signature style that blends authenticity with a high-end, editorial finish.

My goals are focused on growing my brand into a recognized luxury-level presence, using refined ads, magazine-style campaigns, and creative concepts that range from family and beach sessions to bold fashion and fantasy work. I want my work to stand out not just for how it looks, but for how it makes people feel. Along the way, I've already achieved a lot—I've built a distinct visual identity, created consistent campaign layouts, and developed strong creative direction across multiple styles while staying true to my brand.

At the same time, I face challenges that come with growth. I'm constantly working to balance realism with artistic enhancement, making sure my edits stay natural while still feeling polished and elevated. I'm also pushing myself to stand out in a competitive market and turn my creative vision into a sustainable, scalable business. But through it all, I'm continuing to refine my craft, knowing that every step is bringing me closer to a brand that is both emotionally authentic and undeniably high-end.

MES CONSEILS POUR METTRE EN VALEUR VOTRE PROPRIÉTÉ CET ÉTÉ!

- ✓ Aménagements soigné: Assurez-vous que la pelouse est tondue, que les mauvaises herbes dans les parterres de fleurs sont enlevées et que la façade de la maison est propre et attrayante. Un coup de peinture frais sur la porte d'entrée peut faire des merveilles.
- ✓ Faire des travaux d'entretien: Profitez de la période estivale pour régler les petits problèmes d'entretien, comme les robinets qui fuient, les ampoules grillées, les portes qui grincent, etc.
- ✓ Jouer avec la lumière naturelle: L'été, la lumière naturelle est abondante. Ouvrir les rideaux, les stores et les volets pour laisser entrer la lumière. Assurez-vous que les fenêtres sont propres pour maximiser la luminosité à l'intérieur.
- ✓ Créer une ambiance estivale: Des coussins colorés sur le patio et une table dressée pour un barbecue imaginaire dans la cour peuvent aider les acheteurs potentiels à visualiser leur vie estivale dans la maison. Ajoutez des touches décoratives comme des lanternes, des plantes en pot et des meubles d'extérieur confortables afin de rendre votre extérieur plus chaleureux et accueillant.
- ✓ Une pelouse verte: Un beau gazon peut augmenter la valeur de votre maison, assurez-vous de bien l'arroser et le fertiliser lors des canicules.

The Latest Makeup Trends Taking Hollywood by Storm

Hollywood is always at the forefront of beauty innovation, setting the standard for trends that resonate across the globe. From bold colors to natural looks, the makeup trends emerging from Tinseltown often inspire makeup enthusiasts everywhere. Here's a rundown of the hottest makeup trends currently trending in Hollywood.

1. Glowing Skin

The dewy, natural glow is a trend that never seems to fade. Hollywood stars are now focusing on skincare as much as makeup. The look begins with a healthy skincare routine, followed by lightweight foundations and illuminating primers that enhance natural radiance. Products infused with hyaluronic acid and vitamin C are popular choices, giving the complexion a fresh, luminous finish. The goal? To look like you just stepped off the beach after a day of sunshine.

Big, bold eyes are making a statement! Whether it's graphic liners, vibrant eyeshadows, or glitter accents, Hollywood's leading ladies are embracing their eyes as the focal point of their makeup. Bright neon colors, especially electric blues and rich purples, have surged in popularity, alongside graphic eyeliner styles ranging from dramatic winged looks to geometric patterns. This trend channels a sense of fun and creativity, allowing for plenty of artistic expression.

3. Retro Red Lips

Classic red lips are making a comeback, gracing the lips of many starlets on and off the red carpet. This timeless look exudes sophistication and confidence. The trend sees various shades of red—from deep burgundies to bright, cherry reds—used to complement different skin tones. Pairing a bold lip with minimal eye makeup creates a chic contrast, classic with a modern twist.

4. Natural Brows

The heavily sculpted, Instagram-ready brows are stepping back as more Hollywood celebrities embrace a softer, more natural brow. This trend emphasizes fuller brows with a slightly untamed look, achieved through the use of brow gels and pencils that mimic natural hair. The goal is to frame the face while maintaining an effortless vibe that aligns with the clean beauty movement gaining traction in Hollywood.

5. Soft Blush and Monochromatic Looks

Soft, diffused blush is being swept across the cheeks to create a youthful flush, often extending to the temples for a seamless and cohesive look. This trend often goes hand-in-hand with monochromatic makeup, where cheeks, lips, and eyes are harmonized using a single shade or color palette. Blushes in soft pinks and peaches, paired with matching lip tints, create an ethereal, almost dreamy effect that complements the glowing skin trend beautifully.

6. Glossy Eyes

Forget matte finishes; glossy eyelids are taking over. This trend, which reflects light beautifully and enhances the eyes' natural allure, is often achieved with clear or tinted lip gloss applied over eyeshadow or directly onto the eyelids. Celebrities are enhancing their eye looks with this glassy finish, making their eyes appear larger and more luminous.

7. Eco-Friendly and Clean Beauty

As environmental consciousness rises, Hollywood is increasingly turning towards eco-friendly and clean beauty products. Stars are prioritizing brands that use sustainable ingredients and
