Adrianna Marie Guerra

My name is Adrianna Marie Guerra and I am a 9 years old aspiring gymnast. My parents have signed me up in recreational gymnastics from the age of one. At first I was not to fond of it but each day I was influenced by other athletes in the facility. It finally grew onto me and here I am now. I am currently in Level 6 and my dream is to compete in the Olympics. I aim to become successful and to show everyone that we can all make things happen no matter what obstacles we may face in life.

Society continues to struggle each year in order to succeed. Many cannot afford to continue towards their education. My parents work hard for me to proceed further just like their parents did for them. They believe in me and continue to be supportive. I want to be able to give back. I am grateful to have such talent in gymnastics. My goal is to obtain a scholarship and become an athlete in a college team.

My biggest challenge in gymnastics would be combating my fears. There are certain skills that can be spine-chilling and my fear would hinder me from moving forward. However, I make every effort each day to build my confidence. Being a multi-sport athlete has helped me immensely. As a goalie in Soccer I am able to incorporate my gymnastic skills with strength, balance, flexibility and, coordination.

Aubree Ardemagni

My name is Aubree Ardemagni. I am an 8-year-old Level 6 gymnast. I train at Hopes and Dreams in Springdale, AR. My coaches are John and Chelsea. They are the best and each day push me to be my best.

Last year in level 3 I was the gold medalist for all around at our Arkansas State Meet! This past season I mobilized out of level 4 and 5 and competed at level 6. While it was challenging, I did my very best. I got better with each meet and hit all my goals!

My favorite event is Beam. The most challenging right now is bars. But I work hard each and every day.

One day I would like to go to college on a gymnastics scholarship and one day compete in the Olympics!

My name is Ella Willis. I like gymnastics because it gives me a sense of empowerment. Lately, I participated in the nationals and it was so much fun. I am going to miss that. I also emerged as the state champion in the last New York State championship. I am excited to know that I am halfway my dream and doing it in fashion. The dancing outfit is one of my all time favorite and I want to continue in that as long as I can.

Gianna Patricia

My name is Gianna Patricia. It's been a while now since I started gymnastics, started getting into the routine of trying to hit the gym just to keep the strength. Previously, I had an amazing time competing in the nationals. Met so many wonderful people and met so many memories. It was an amazing experience and I can't wait to be back next year.

Heather Massey

My name is Heather Massey. I recently won the Dutch gymnastics competition. Exactly one year ago, I won the states dance championship. For this year as well, I am really excited and want to be on top of the game. Let's see how it turns out to be. I am working on my full strength and the bars are set in the home only. I really want to make it again. In my free time, I also like to click pictures.

Hello, my name is Ipek, a 9-year-old passionate gymnast hailing from the beautiful city of Eskişehir, Turkey. I didn't even know how to carthwheel a year ago, but now I've entered competitions and I have ranks. As a member of my school team, we clinched the first position in the city, showcasing our collective talent and dedication. Individually, I also achieved a commendable third place in the city, proving my determination and skill. The gym is my happy place, where I put on my cool gym suit and give it my all. I would like to thank my course, my coaches and my family for this. My motto for gym life is 'Unleashing the Power Within!' It reminds me to stay strong and never give up, just like my family always reminds me. My biggest dream is to become a very famous gymnast in the future, like Katelyn Ohasi, she is my favorite gymnast and I really want to see her. We have come to the end of our article. I am so excited for this magazine. Andseeyouguys.
