My dream is to spread awareness on mental health, specifically anxiety & eating disorders. I am two years sober now from drinking alcohol, but this past spring I lost 100 pounds in 5 months and fought a hard anorexia battle. And I don't think people realize mental health conditions don't discriminate. And I had tattoos to support my mental health, they make me happy.

My dream is to one day become an international accomplished model and actor. Growing up in a small town in Alabama the thought of being a model or actor seemed like a pipe dream. I left Alabama by joining the military. The military allowed me to travel the world, meet new people, and get an education. In the process of doing all that I realized that being a model and actor didn't just have to be a pipe dream. It could be a reality. It required me getting out of my comfort zone and making it happen. Comfort zones are where hopes and dreams go to die. Once I made the decision to go for it I haven't looked back since. I have been very fortunate to have met great friends and mentors along the way. To date my accomplishments, include being in multiple runway shows, being published multiple times, and being invited to shoots and shows internationally. The real challenge is finding ways of standing out in the crowd while still being true to who you are. I am very optimistic about the future and hope to help as many people as I can along the way.

As a model who is serious about my career, I can say that my dreams of working fashion week in LA are becoming goals and soon will be achievements. I pride myself on being different and not fitting into the box so many are shoved into. For me this is a game changer, and I do not intend to stop anytime soon. I strive for greatness in every shoot I do and lose myself completely to the camera. My favorite quote was spoken by Calamity Jane : "I figure if a girl wants to be a legend, she should just go right ahead and be one." With that I will say, I am reaching for legendary.

My name is Dana, i am 32 years old and i am a tattoo collector. I have discovered my passion for this form of art when i was in collage, i had my first tattoo done when i was 23 and i must say that was the point where i became addicted to it. My main inspiration for this beautiful victorian style came from a very well known tattoo artist - Ryan Ashely DiCristina. I have received so many compliments, wherever i go people are stunned when they see my tattoos especially the one on my neck. I think tattoos are a very powerful tool of seduction and Men and women definitely do seem to be drawn to this form of art – I think it's synonymous of exoticism and wildness, of women who are free spirited and don't conform. I do think I have quite feminine, striking tattoos that are sexually appealing to men and fit both with my aesthetic and lifestyle. Of course, attraction is based on so much more than (in this case, literally) what is skin deep. But no one is immune to superficial attraction, and it's just one of the many weapons in my arsenal! I am planning more tattoo sessions in the future, i must say i am not a huge fan of the pain but the final result is all that matters to me!

Hallo mein Name ist Benjamin Steinwachs ein engagierter Tattoo Künstler aus Hessen in Deutschland. Ich bin selbständig seit ca einem halben Jahr und betreibe ein kleines aber feines Tattoo-Studio das ich mit meinem Bruder und meiner Frau zusammen als startup aufgebaut habe und auch weiter ausbaue. Ich bin sozusagen ein waschechter Quereinsteiger der sich von Grund auf alles selbst beigebracht hat und auch immer noch fleißig am lernen ist 😊. Mein Ziel ist es sich in der Tattoo community einen angesehenen Namen zu machen und meine Kunst und Leidenschaft in die Welt zu bringen. Bei mir gilt das Gebot der Kunde ist König und fast nichts ist unmöglich. Zeichnungen werden von mir individuell angefertigt und vorlagen auf Kundenwunsch auch abgeändert und angepasst . Ein höchst Maß an Hygiene ist natürlich immer vorausgesetzt. Ich freue mich daher natürlich wenn ihr auf mich aufmerksam werdet und mein Studio kräftig besucht.

Viele liebe Grüße und bis bald euer

Ever since I was a little girl, I had always dreamed of growing up to be a supermodel, oneday walking the runway just like the ones I admired most; {on tv, course}-the Victoria's Secret Angels! What started out as play in front of a mirror or walking down my hall "catwalk", eventually turned into a genuine pursuit as I became a teenager. After years of compliments on my beautiful aesthetic coming from friends, family, and even strangers- all randomly stopping to tell me I should start modeling, I finally agreed and went on at 14 years old to check out some modeling talent recruiters/schools. And just as soon as I was ready to get started, it was over just as quickly due to outrageous costs.

Fast forward 10-15 years, Life happened and {seemingly} crushed my aspirations at the time; I was over my head working on my bachelors degree in nursing as well as raising a child as a single mom. But after graduating college, things finally began to settle down as I went on to continue work managing a psychiatry practice; a job that, up until recently, after 15 years I had eventually grown to hate it. I needed a change. A big one! And it was that very moment I knew, at 31 years old, it was now or never! So I took a risk and quit my job, to pursue modeling full-time. I knew that I needed to learn a WHOLE LOT, in a very short amount of time, if I were going to be able to make the most of getting a very late start. Since starting this new journey, I've set many ambitious goals right off the bat, and it didn't take very long before I was smashing them! About six months into shooting, I had already been published in International Model Magazine. Twice now, earning the cover spot in their April 2021 issue! I have also since smashed my biggest goal so far; getting cast and walking my very first runway for HiTech Moda and Orlando Swim week in July 2021! That feeling, being on the runway was the most exhilarating experience of my life! It's inspired me to delve into all the different styles of modeling, with a newfound interest in high fashion and haute couture. No I've only been modeling for about two or three years now, I feel that I've explored just about all the different niches and have developed a level of proficiency in most, if not all of them! My favorite will always be runway, although some fashion shows can be a little difficult to get cast for, being so heavily tattooed. But if I had to pick a second favorite, I really love shooting fine art and/or boudoir; it's such a powerful style of shooting that really brings out beautiful, sensual emotion, And it's so very empowering, all at the same time!

My goal for 2022 is to get signed by a few boutique agencies around here in Orlando. I'm already represented by a mother agency called Modelscout, but. To reach my truest potential, I really need to put myself out there. And now that my portfolio is finally just about complete I feel I'm ready to take it to the next level. Also will be trying Miami & New York, hopeful to get signed by one or more of the big names in the industry! I feel and believe strongly in my look, despite being a little older than others. My exotic look paired with good, youthful-genetics will be the key to finding success in this industry; achieving my modeling goals and dreams that will, in the end, have been SO worth the risk of quitting my dayjob for something new that pushes my creative boundaries and makes my heart so very happy ♥
