Braz Carpenter

The name is Braz Carpenter but, people call me many things. TheWorldsELITEskater, Ballerina Boy, Ballet King. You can feel free to call me anything except lazy 😊. My internet adventures began with underground street racing and motorcycle stunt riding. Went viral on a 1320 Video when Kyle visited Park 100 in Indianapolis. Met Garrett Mitchell back when he had his Subaru. You might know him as Cleetus McFarland on YouTube. I took a strong liking to stunt riding. Learned quickly. Obtaining a sponsorship through Westfield Yamaha & Suzuki out of Westfield, IN. Stunt riding lead me to XDL Competitions. Shout out Randy Grube. I retired from stunt riding after a nasty crash. I had multiple compounded fractures. Over 2 dozen surgical procedures. Bone Graft failure lead to infection that almost took my life 1 year after the wreck. Allergies to the medicine shut down my liver and almost killed me yet again. I developed artificial blood clots caused from the line that was inserted into my veins to deliver the strong medicine. I had to give myself Lovenox injections 💉 3 times daily which left enormous bruises all over me. After Stunt riding I felt lost. I wasn't getting that adrenaline high that I desire so greatly. I started to get into Jet Boat racing 🚤 but, it was hard to find anyone to enjoy it with. Thought about getting a Rickter to do some back flips on the flat water and my family all said , "ABSOLUTELY NOT!". One day my children asked to go rollerskating. I refused to wear the rental skates. I purchased the cheapest skates available. I went out onto the floor and I IMMEDIATELY knew that this was it. This was my new thing. I skated as a child. Was decent at it. Only cared about winning the races. I had no idea that I had all the potential inside of me that I have now unlocked for the entire world to witness. My Mother is in the record books for Rollerskating. Her name used to be in the skate floor in Alexandria, IN before they closed that rink. She went to Worlds at the age of 9 I do believe. Her Skating Partner (Whom will remain nameless) is a multiple Gold Olympic Champion on ice. Whatever my mother has inside of her ? I have it. So does my son. We are three generations of Rollerskating Royalty 👑 I plan to travel the entire world and capture every precious moment on video. I plan to make little reels for all of my fans along my journey. I want to give my fans something that can't be purchased. The best gift is something that can't be purchased. I have discovered that I am a very talented videographer on my skates. I enjoy making the videos more than I enjoy being the star of them. I enjoy the production aspect the most. I enjoy ice skating but, I strongly dislike 🤢. I can also Inline skate for speed drills. Quads are my favorite though. I have Drop Foot on my left foot from the accident. Go figure when you get 8 bones sticking out of your shin, it bound to damage some tendons. I have Planter movements ¹⁰⁰. Dorsal = No Bueno I will be on America's Got Talent Season 20. I have people trying to get me onto the next season of Rollerjam on HBO. My

TikTok is TheWorldsELITESkater. Facebook is Braz Carpenter. P.s. I beat opioid addiction and so can you! ❤️

Inked Dreams: A Tattoo Artist's Journey

Art has always been my voice, my way of connecting with the world. As a tattoo artist, my dream is to travel across the globe, sharing my craft with people from all walks of life. Each piece I create tells a story—not just of the person wearing it, but of the passion and dedication I pour into my work.

I'm proud to say that my journey so far has been filled with milestones. Locally, my name has become associated with meaningful, detailed designs. Winning several tattoo competitions has been a humbling acknowledgment of the hard work I put into every line, shade, and dot. But for me, success isn't about the trophies—it's about leaving a lasting impression.

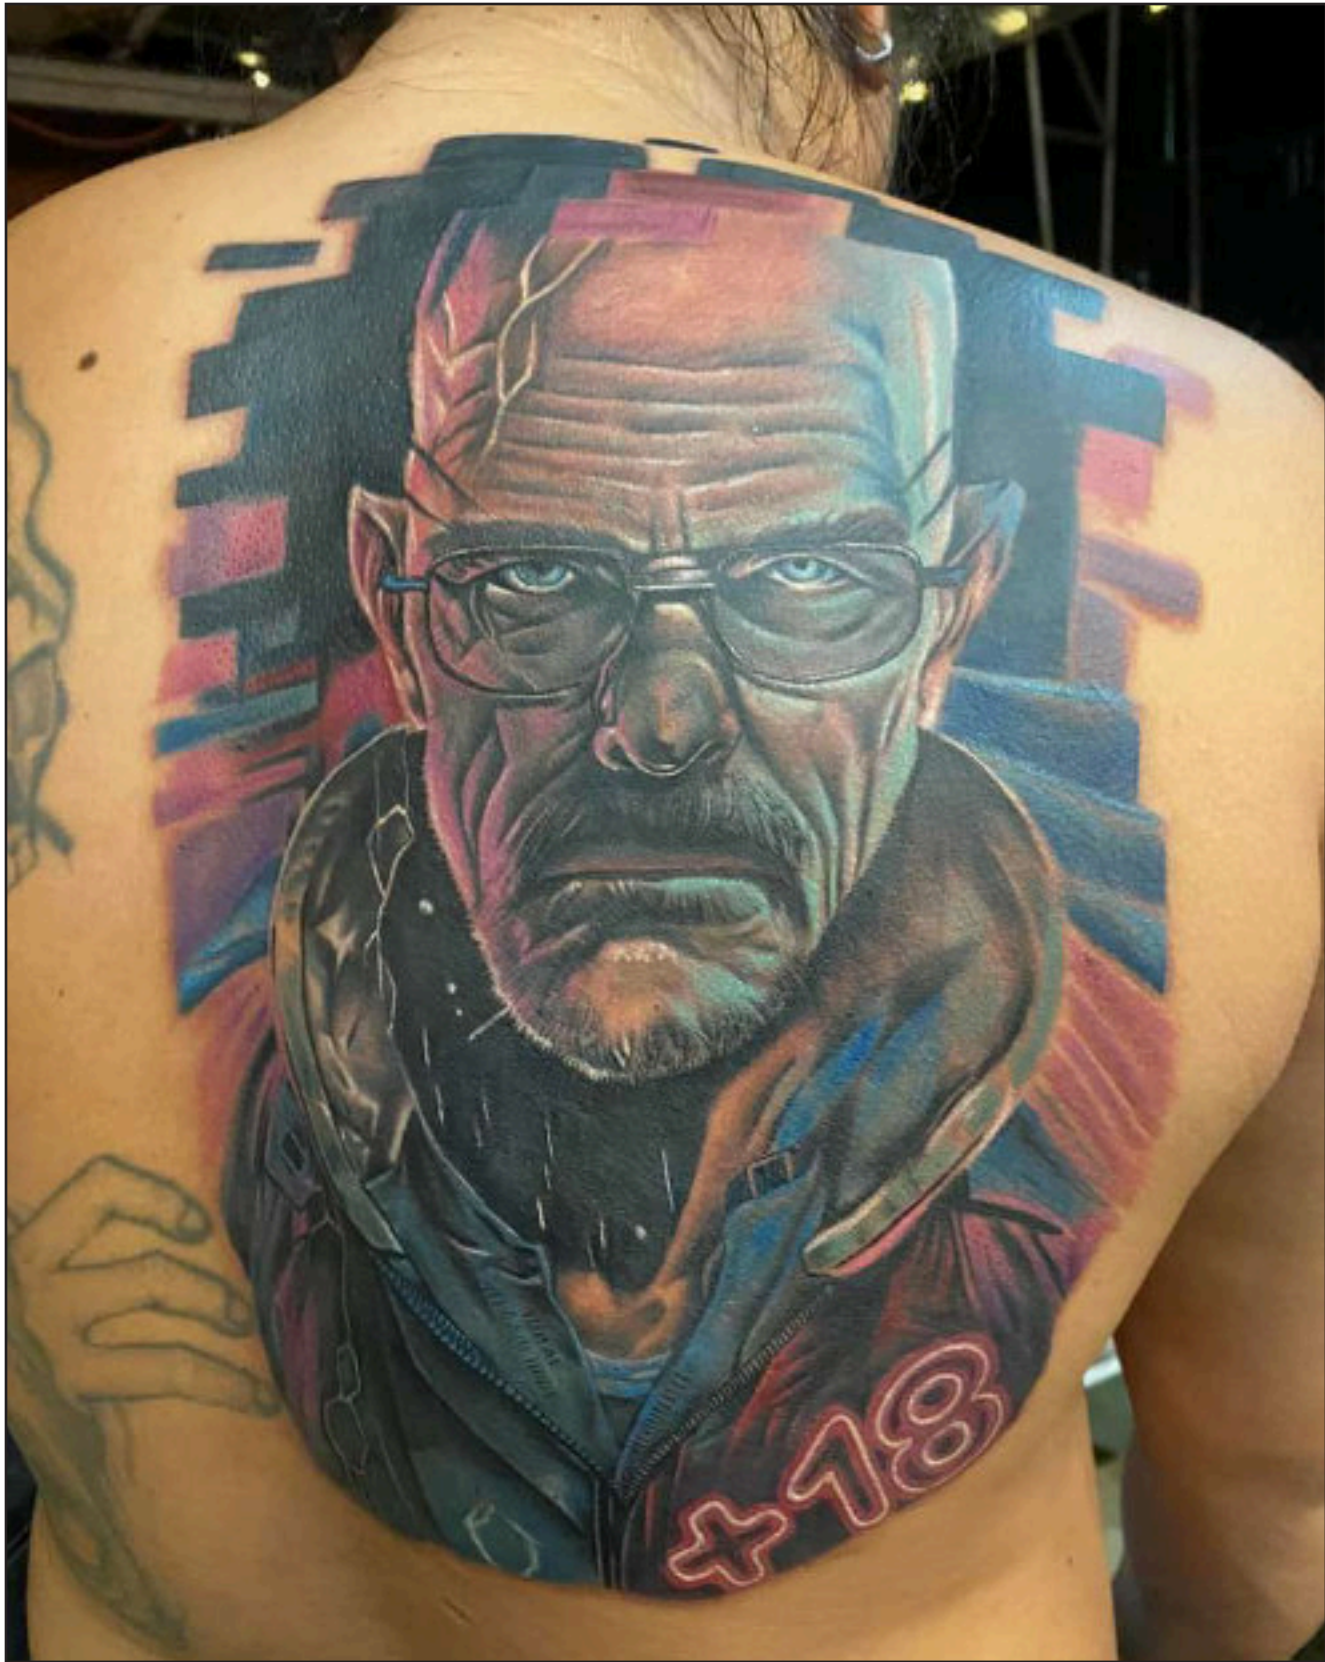

My ultimate goal is to have my art recognized not just in my hometown but far beyond. I want people to see my work and feel the love and effort that goes into every creation. Tattoos are more than just ink; they're stories etched into skin, and I'm honored to bring those stories to life.

This journey hasn't always been easy, but it's been worth every late night and every challenge. One day, I'll pack my tools and take this art to the world, leaving a mark not just on skin but on hearts everywhere.

During a recent photoshoot, I was fortunate enough to work with Ernie Harvey. He is a certified fitness trainer in Maryland. He was inspired in his journey towards fitness about 8 years back when he was 60lbs overweight. Every thing changed during the pandemic. He was stuck in the the house with his son and couldn't go to the gym, so they started working out in their house, daily. Ernie trained his son and helped him shape into a 5-star, top 20 athlete of the 2024 class of Montgomery county, MD. Highly motivated by his sons achievements, he started his personal training course with ISSA and become certified to do what he loves, helping others achieve their heath and fitness goals.
