Addyson Cryar

My Name is Addyson Cryar. I have been doing Brazilian Jiu-Jitsu for almost four years now. I have competed in many tournaments, mainly NAGA tournaments. I love doing jiu-jitsu because it teaches you self-defense. I have won many metals and lost a few matches, but I don't let that get me down,

I learn from it and push forward. My coaches are amazing and teach me so much. One day I hope to become a famous Jiu-Jitsu artist and coach.

My name is Carter Jack. I am 13 years old. I want to play for my country. This is my biggest dream. So far, I have played many local tournaments but the privilege of representing any state is not there with me. Last Saturday also, I managed to pull an armbar. All thanks to my team and coach. Without their support, it wouldn't have been possible. I also want to congratulate everyone who is supporting me in my journey.

My KwanJangNim Grand Master Rick St. Clair, who owns St. Clair's Taekwondo in Ingleside, partnered with his longtime friend Cynthia Rothrock, a martial arts Grand Master and actress with dozens of titles to her name, to launch the Golden Gate Hall of Honors. The sold-out black tie event took place on Saturday, September 16, 2023 at the South San Francisco Convention Center. Participants and guests came from all over the globe and the event, with 230 attendees, was a huge success.

Libby Boling

My name is Libby Boling-The Ginja Ninja. I am 11 years old and I have been training under Josh Hayden at Gracie Owensboro for 3 1/2 years. I am a gray belt. I compete fairly often and have won 18 medals, including 8 gold. Most recently, I won 2 gold medals and one silver at the Fuji Kentucky State championship.

I got into jiu jitsu after watching Cobra Kai with my dad, and asked if I could do karate. He told me about jiu jitsu, and found Gracie Owensboro. I gave it a shot, and have loved training every since.

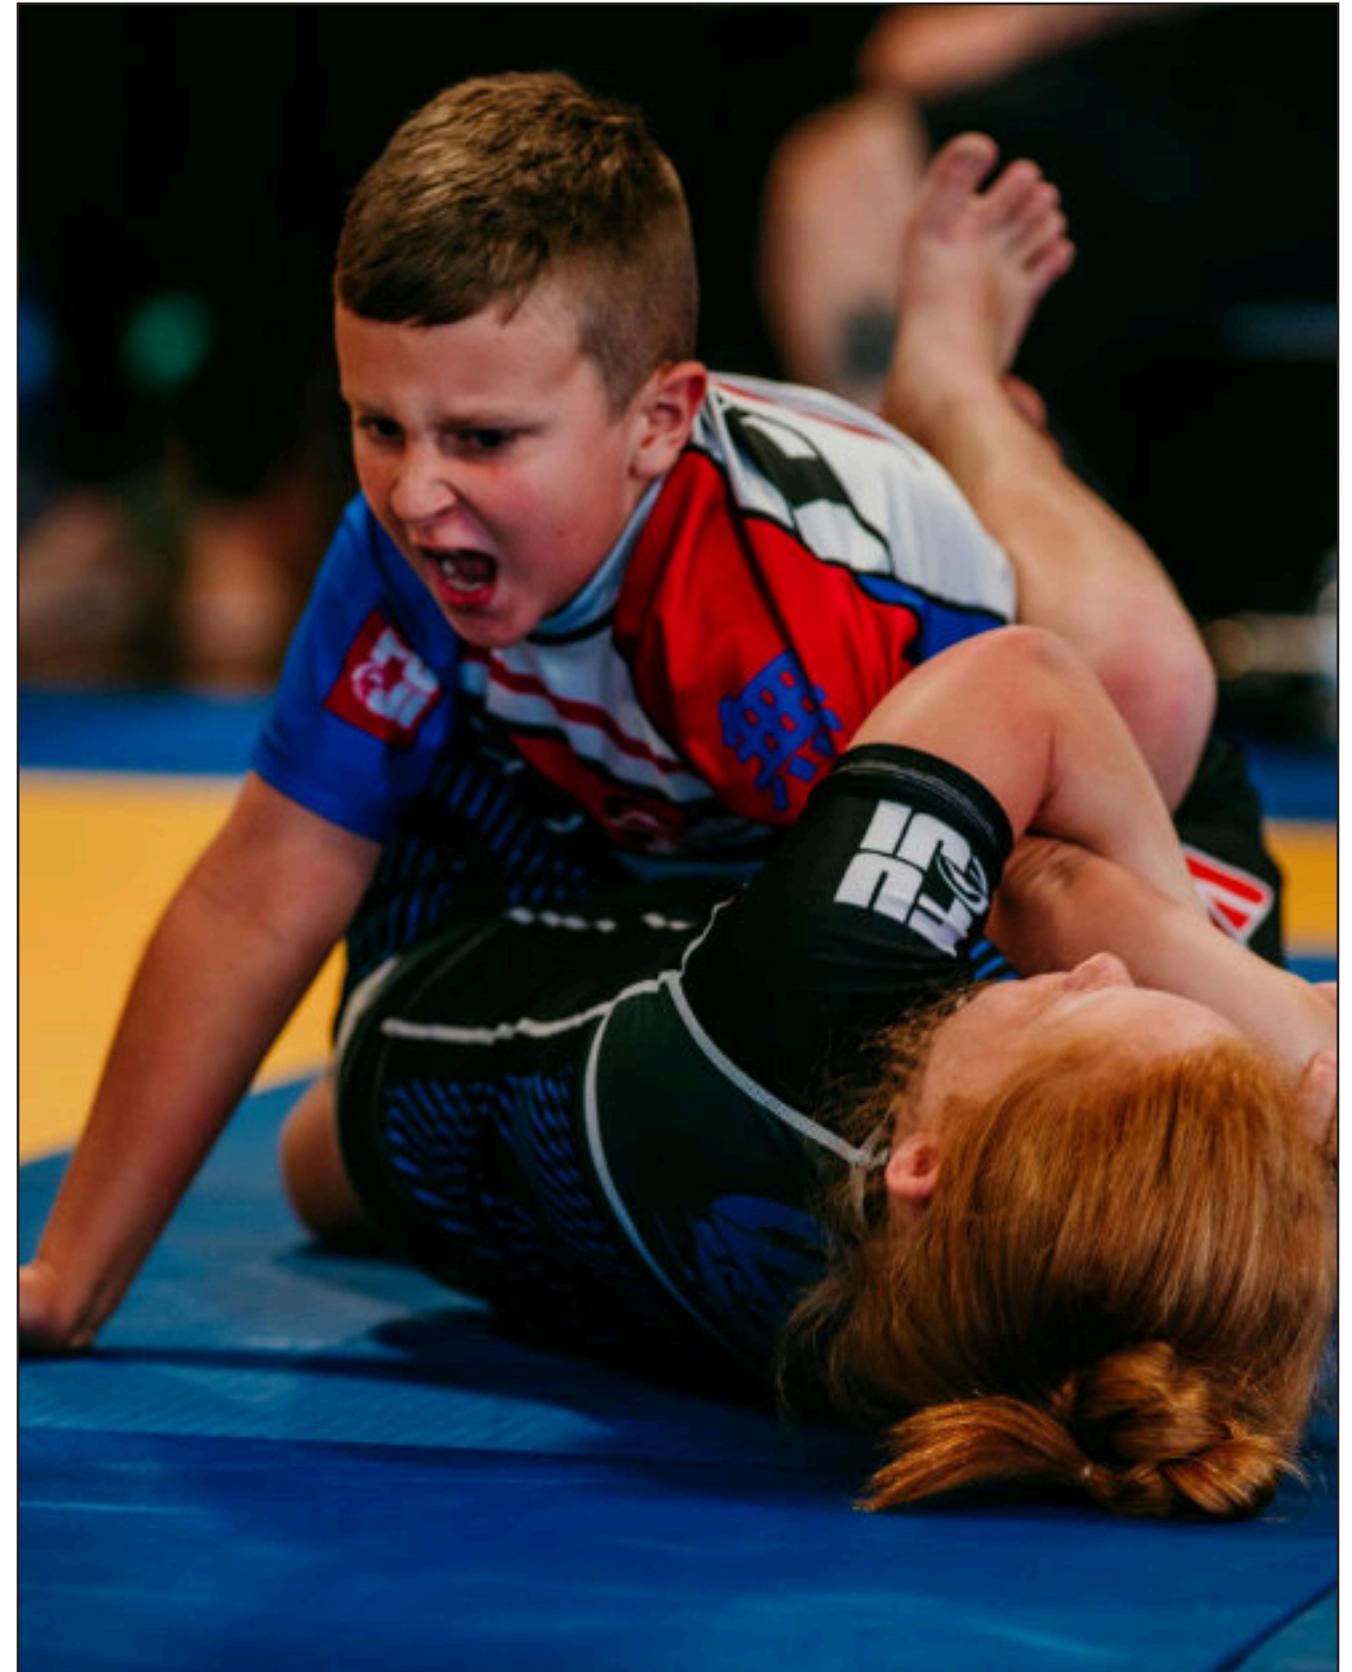

I love training jiu jitsu for the fun, and for the competition. I am very hard on myself. I know there is no losing, either we win, or we learn. am not very big or tall, and people often look at me and think I may be an easy match. However, I have earned a reputation for being tough and strong on the mat. I compete hard, have a ton of heart, and leave it all on the mat. I think that leads to my success.

I hope to keep getting better at jiu jitsu, and hopefully keep succeeding in competition. My goal is to continue on, eventually gaining my black belt, and having as much fun and learning as possible along the way. Outside of jiu jitsu, I love anime, cats, and music.

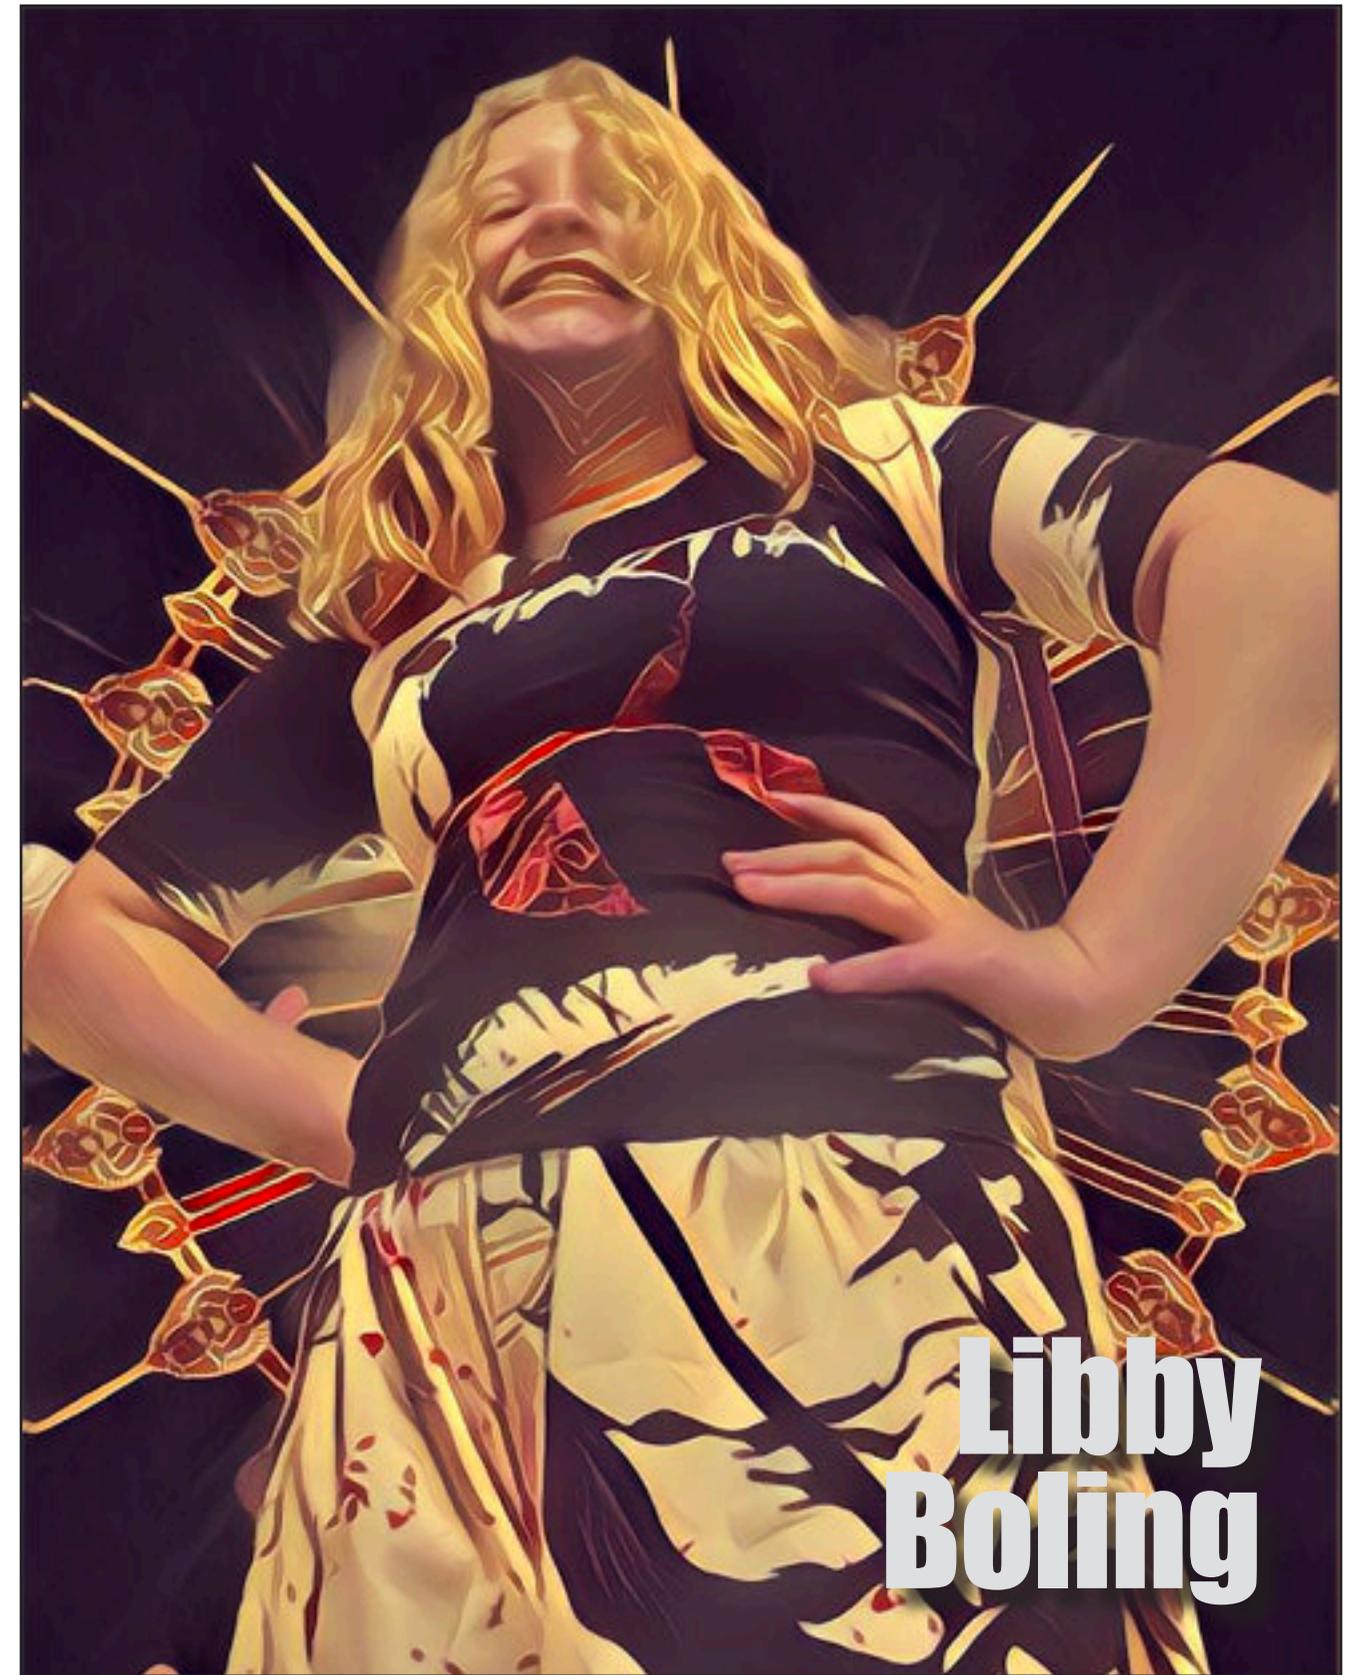

I am lucky to have a gym that treats its students like family, encourages its students to grow on the mat, and off the mat making jiu jitsu a way of life not just a martial art. I love my gym family, and plan on practicing jiu jitsu for a long long time.

Sean Robertson

My name is Sean Robertson. I am 14 years old. I am a disciplined jiu jitsu fighter and a hard believer of luck. Just this month, Atlanta open was there, performed below average but hope to overcome soon. I am on the journey of achieving my success

My name is Tristan J. Simms and I am 9 years old. I started doing Brazilian Jiu-Jitsu (BJJ) with my Dad at home in the Summer of 2021. I really enjoyed it so my Dad enrolled me in a Jiu Jitsu class which I started in November 2021.

I have really enjoyed my journey so far. Brazilian Jiu Jitsu has taken me to a few Academies where I enjoy meeting new friends, learning new skills, and sparring with my teammates. I also enjoy competing and winning medals. I have made some really good friends and had some great professors who have and are teaching me along the way.

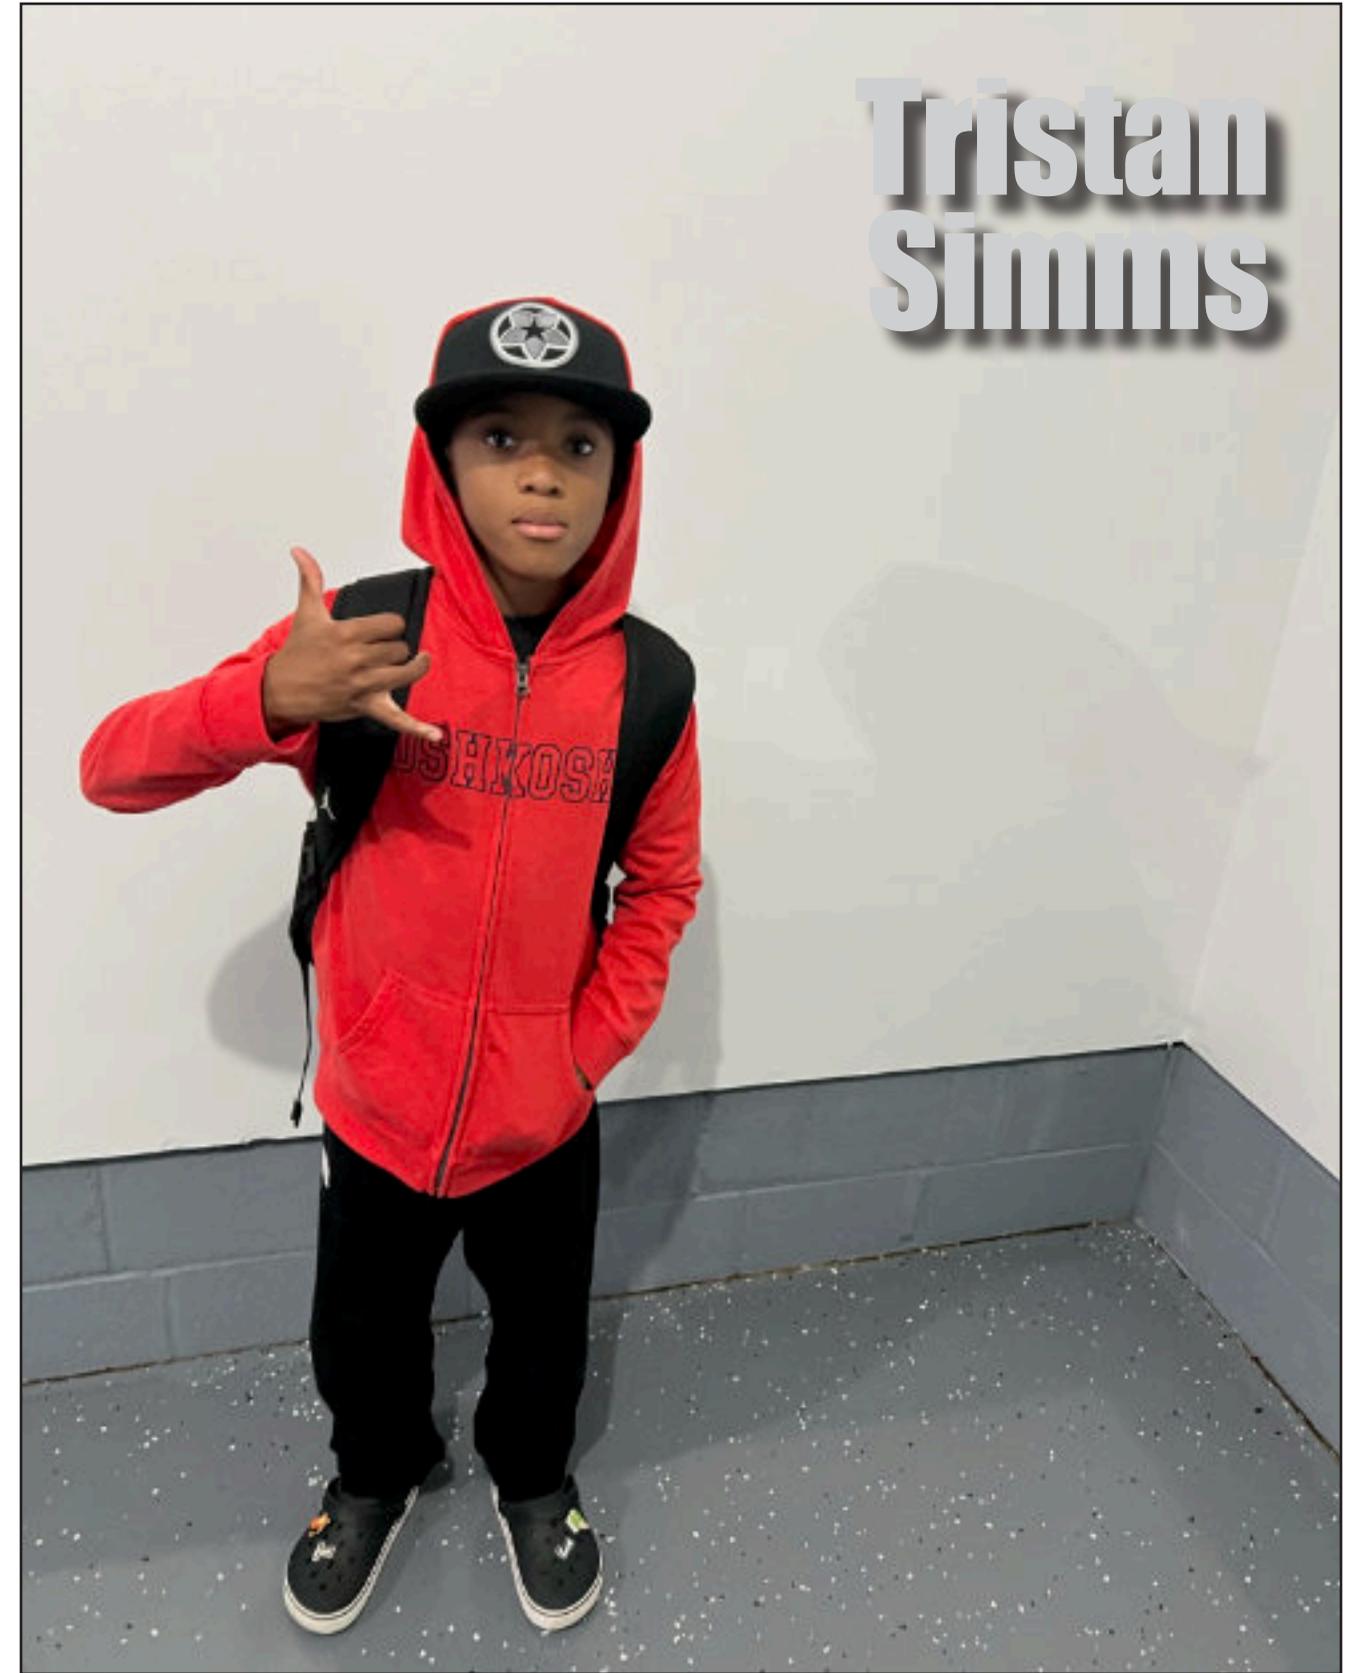

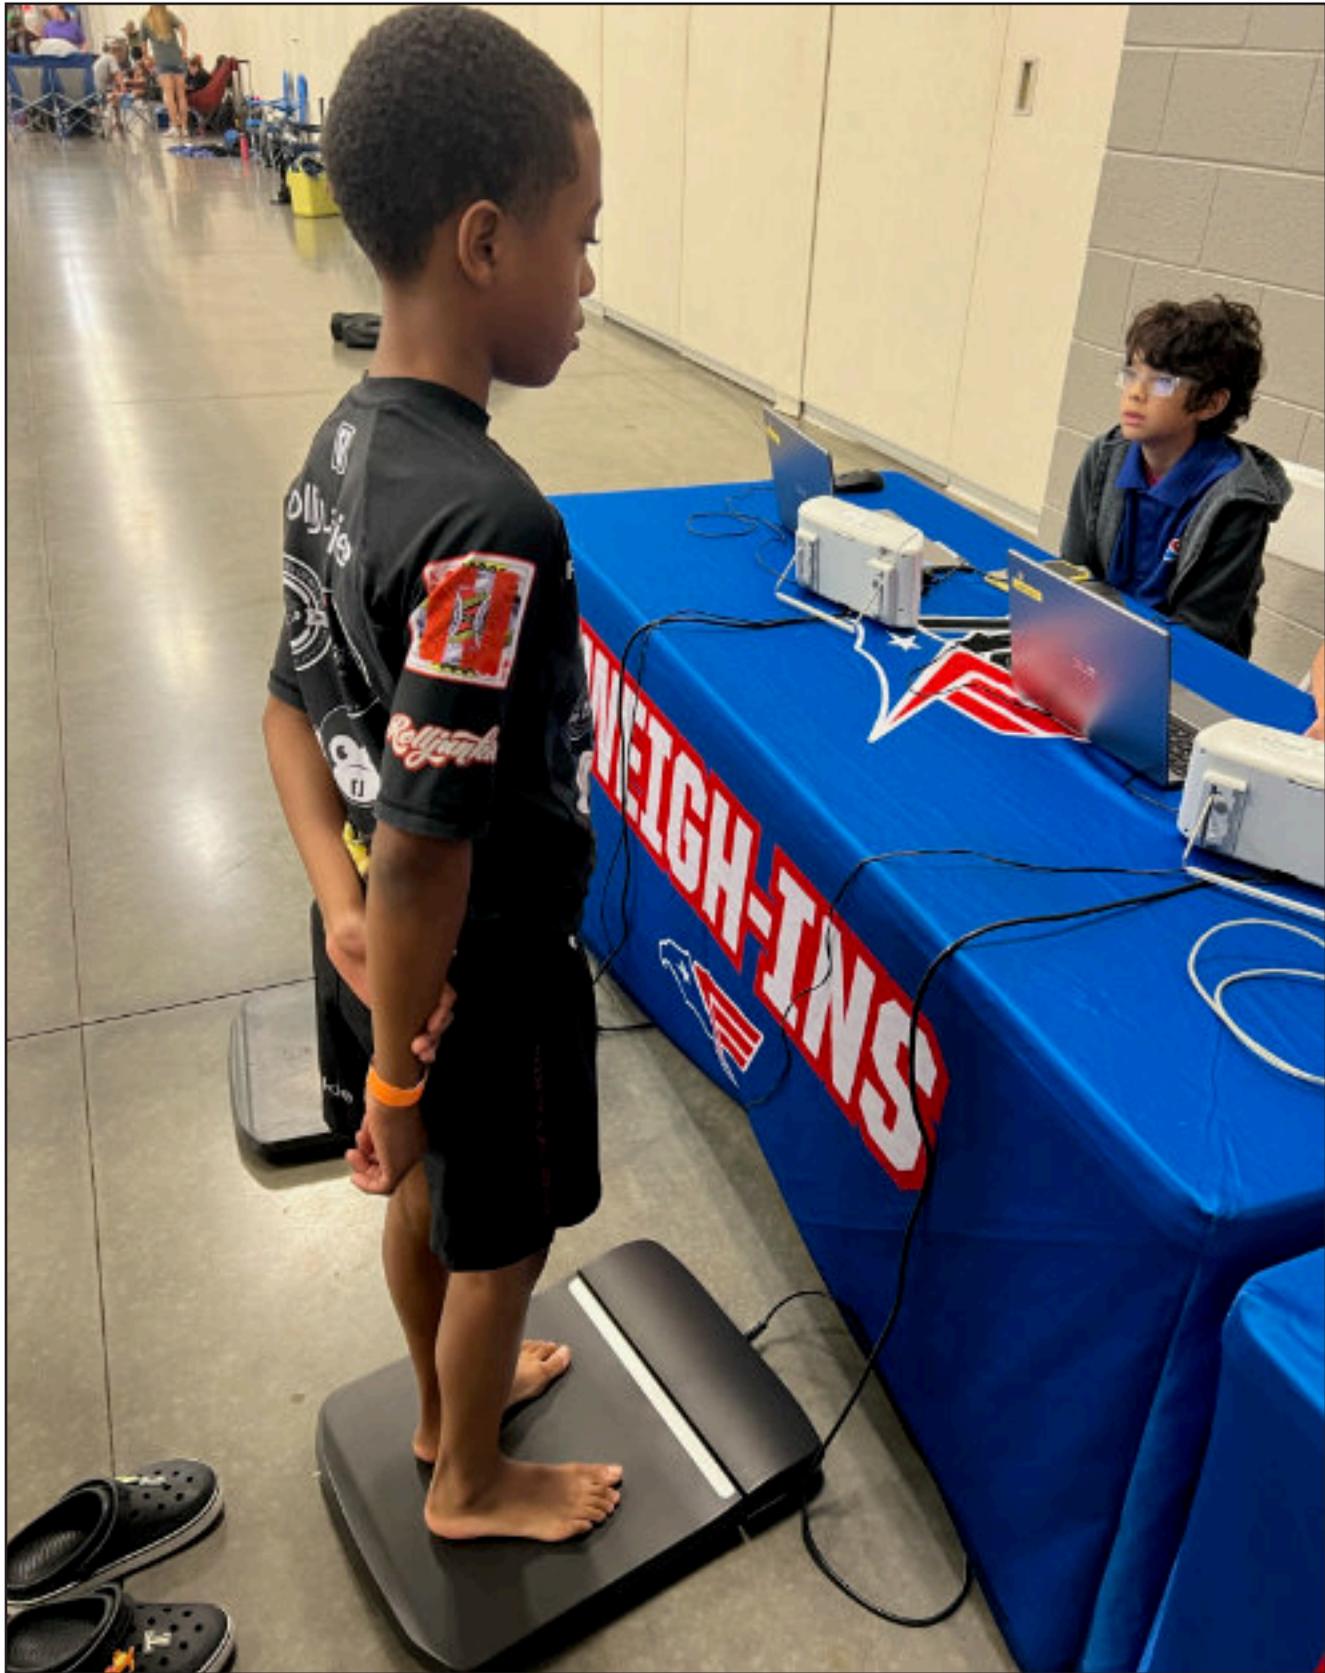

Even though I enjoy BJJ there are some things that are hard. Training is really hard sometimes but I understand it makes me better. Losing competitions is also hard but I understand that this teaches me that I can't always win and as my professors always say, there's no losing, only learning.

I have done several competitions and won gold, silver, and bronze medals. I also competed in the 2023 Pans Kids Jiu-Jitsu competition. I plan on doing more competitions including IBJJF to help me get better. My dream is to win the 2024 Kids Pans Jiu Jitsu competition.
