SAMINA MUGHAL: The Visionary Designer Defining Global Fashion

Award-winning international fashion designer Samina Mughal is celebrated for her breathtaking collection of dresses and gowns, which grace prestigious red carpets worldwide—from New York, London, Milan, Paris, Dubai, Tokyo, LA, and Cannes—adorning celebrities and socialites at major global events like The Oscars and the Cannes Film Festival.

Her brand, SAMINA MUGHAL, is a registered trademark with the United States Patent & Trademark Office, encompassing fashion and clothing under this renowned label. Her collections are available in boutiques and department stores across the globe, while international customers enjoy her accessible luxury designs through www.SaminaMughal.com.

Commitment to Fashion Sustainability &

Innovation

Samina Mughal's dedication to fashion sustainability earned her an invitation to speak at the United Nations Headquarters in New York, where she addressed an elite panel of CEOs and industry decision-makers, reinforcing her commitment to ethical and sustainable fashion practices.

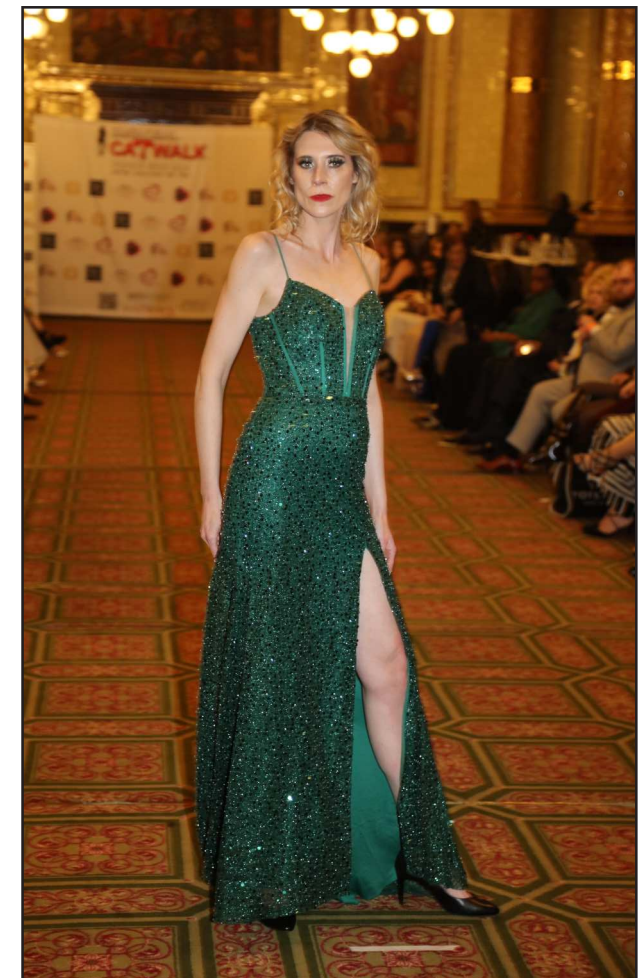

In 2019, she expanded her brand with MUGHAL Beauty, featuring luxury beauty products, skincare, and cosmetics, offering a complete lifestyle experience for her global audience.

SMGlobal Catwalk & Philanthropy

As the Founder and Executive Producer of SMGlobal Catwalk, Mughal oversees an international fashion enterprise producing Fashion Week shows and events in major fashion capitals, publishing a global fashion & lifestyle magazine, operating an online TV channel, offering model management services, and running a fashion training academy. Beyond fashion, Samina Mughal is a dedicated philanthropist and Founder/President of Relief SMGlobal Foundation Inc, a 501(c)(3) charity committed to empowering women and children through education, training, and global fashion initiatives. A portion of ticket sales from her events is donated to children's charities in developing countries.

Strength Through Adversity

For years, Mughal has supported Stage 4 cancer survivors, granting them the opportunity to walk the runway during Fashion Week—transforming dreams into reality. In September 2022, she herself was diagnosed with breast cancer, earning the powerful title of Breast Cancer Survivor. Fueled by her journey, she is more passionate than ever about helping others navigate the challenges of cancer.

In October 2023, she launched the Annual

PINK GALA—a meaningful event celebrating her one-year milestone of being cancer-free, while serving as a crucial platform to raise awareness and funds for cancer patients in need.

A Legacy of Excellence & Influence

In September 2024, Samina Mughal was honored with the prestigious "Ambassador for Peace" award from the Universal Peace Federation in London, England, recognizing her global contributions to fashion and humanitarian causes.

Her signature style delivers innovative, glamorous designs that embrace a blend of sexy, edgy, and eclectic aesthetics. Known for her unconventional silhouettes and luxurious embellishments, each piece reflects intricate craftsmanship and a refined attention to detail. Drawing inspiration from her multicultural upbringing, Mughal infuses elements from the Exotic East, edgy European influences, and red-carpet glamour, shaped by her love of world travel, international music, the arts, entertainment, and her own unique style.

A Trailblazer in Fashion

Born and raised in Birmingham, England, Samina Mughal began her career after graduating from The Institute of Art & Design. Her ability to merge cutting-edge style with business acumen has made her a visionary in the industry.
