Hi, my name is Hope and this is my journey in the modeling industry.

Modeling has always been more than just a career goal—it's been my passion and a powerful form of self-expression. From editorial shoots to car promotions and brand campaigns, I've built my path as a fashion and car model by combining style, strength, and versatility. My dream has always been to represent confidence and authenticity, both in the fashion industry and in the high-energy world of automotive modeling.

The journey hasn't been easy. I've faced countless challenges—from breaking into competitive markets to dealing with the pressure to meet certain standards. There were moments of doubt, setbacks, and learning curves, but each one taught me resilience and reminded me why I started. I've learned to embrace my individuality, to stay focused, and to push forward with determination.

Over time, my hard work has led to some incredible opportunities. I've modeled for fashion brands in editorial and commercial shoots, worked at major car shows, and represented vehicle manufacturers at promotional events. Each achievement has been a step toward fulfilling my goals—building a respected career, inspiring others, and showing that success comes from consistency and self-belief.

This journey continues to grow, and with every shoot, event, and experience, I become more rooted in my purpose. Modeling, for me, is not just about looking the part—it's about living it with passion, professionalism, and pride.

Becoming a tattoo model wasn't just a dream—it was a way to own my story. I've always seen tattoos as more than just art; they're identity, resilience, and expression. I wanted to be the kind of model that challenged beauty standards and represented something real. My goals were clear: get published, walk in expos, collaborate with top artists, and build a platform that speaks to individuality. It took time, hustle, and confidence—but I've been featured in magazines, grown a loyal following, and worked with amazing creators. But it hasn't been easy. I've faced rejection, stereotyping, and the pressure to fit into boxes I never belonged in. Still, every challenge pushed me to grow. Today, I'm not just a model—I'm a storyteller, a brand, and a believer in authenticity. My ink tells my story. And it's far from over.

I'm jan an actress/
model from Manchester. I used to do soap extras
many years ago
and in the last year
I decided to give my acting a shot. I started having
lessons with Jack Ryder and connected with
many film directors
on Facebook
In the last 3-4
months I have secured around 8-10 film parts for this year and 2026.
My biggest achievement I have to say was recently
filming an intimate
scene and I was terrified. I gave it my all and was very proud of my acting
when the director
was very happy
with me on camera.
So this I found
intense and very challenging. I have been a model for years and I love the camera. I come alive on all my
shoots and am fun
to work with.
Seeing my work is
very satisfying
because I work hard. I have been cabin crew and also am a
phlebotomist.
There is nothing I
can't turn my hand
to and I have also survived Ovarian
Cancer twice. I live life to the full and
have so much
gratitude.
